ROBINSON - ANWAY

The marriage of Mr. James Anway and Miss Pearl Robinson was solemnized at the home of the brides father, Wm. Robinson, three miles northwest of Alden at high noon, Wednesday, January 14. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C.H. VanMetre, pastor of the M.E. church. Mr. and Mrs. Anway go to housekeeping at once in their pleasant farm home in northern Franklin county, followed by the good wishes of our readers.

Grandpa Anway used to come to Minnesota and spend the winter with us on the farm. I don't have a lot of memories of him, but a couple of things come to mind. He used to chew Copenhagen snuff and when I was about 6 or 7 years old, I was always begging him for a chew. One day he finally gave in and gave me my hearts desire. It was the most awful thing I had ever tasted and I rinsed my mouth out and never asked him for a chew again! I still don't understand anyone chewing it because they liked the taste. Grandpa Anway also like to chew Black Jack gum and he must have kept adding to it, because he had a large wad of gum, which he always carried around with him in a Carter's Little Liver Pills can. When he would get tired of chewing it, he would put it back in the can for the next time. I never saw very much of my grandparents, because they lived in Iowa and we lived in Minnesota. My father was a farmer and it was difficult to get away for any visits, because of the distance, and we always had to be home for the farm chores.

He married¹²¹ Pearl Esther Robinson, daughter of William G. Robinson and Evelyn Francis Barnes, 14 January 1903, in Hampton, Franklin County, Iowa¹²². Born, 18 June 1886, in Alden, Lee Township, Franklin County, Iowa¹²³. Died, 23 December 1965, in Mason City, Cerro Gordo County, Iowa¹²⁴. Burial: 27 December 1965, in Geneva, Franklin County, Iowa¹²⁵.

According to information sent to me by Jonnie Sisler, Mary Jane Rundell, daughter of Chauncy and Susan Anway Rundell, and her husband Henry Allison, died somewhere between Scott's Bluff, Nebraska and Fort Laramie, Wyoming in a cholera epidemic which swept through the wagon train that they were traveling in, bound for California in 1852. They left two small daughters aged 5 years and 2 years. The children were taken in by families who had lost their own little children in the epidemic and were brought to California. If it had not been for the family Bible they would not have known who the children were. They were not reunited with any of their own relatives until they were grown and married.

46. Joseph L.⁵ Anway (William Jr., 17). Born, 13 October 1829, in Scipio Township, Seneca County, Ohio. Died, 21 September 1911. Burial: September 1911, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio²⁰. Part of a biographical sketch of Joseph taken from the "History of Seneca County Ohio," Vol. I & II; 1911, page 870, 871.

Joseph L. Anway - A native son of Seneca county, Joseph L. Anway has passed his entire life thus far in this section of the state and though now an octogenarian he still retains in much of their strength and pristine vigor the excellent mental and physical powers of his youth. He was born on the old homestead farm in Scipio township, Seneca county, on the 13th of October, 1829, and is the son of William and Eliza (Lapham) Anway, the former of whom was born on the 13th of January, 1803, and the latter on the 27th of January 1809, both being natives of New York.

Joseph L. Anway was reared to the sturdy discipline of the old home farm, in the work and management of which he early became associated with his father. He afforded the advantages of the common schools of his native county and later entered Seneca County Academy, which he attended for several years. That he put his scholastic acquirements to good use is evident when it is stated that prior to his marriage he taught for several terms in schools in Scipio and Reed townships. He spent most of the time at home with his parents until he had attained to the age of twenty-four years and he then initiated his independent operations as a farmer, beginning on an eighty acre tract which he had received from his father. His present finely improved farm consists of two hundred and seventy acres and is eligibly located in Scipio township, near Republic. In politics he accords a stanch allegiance to the principles and policies for which the Republican party stands sponsor and he has ever shown a keen and intelligent interest in public affairs in the county. He has held the office of township trustee for eighteen consecutive years and has given efficient service as a member of the school board for fully a score of years. Fraternally he is a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at Republic, having been affiliated with this organization for a period of forty-two years and being the oldest member in the state. He holds membership in Republic Lodge No. 40, and became noble grand when eighty-one years of age. His religious belief is in harmony with the tenets of the Methodist Episcopal church and both he and his wife have been active factors in connection with the different departments of the church work. Mr. Anway has been twice married, his first union being with Miss Betsy A. Thompson, the ceremony having been performed on the 6th of October 1852. She was summoned to the life eternal on the 31st of October, 1864, and on the 16th of December 1869, was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Anway to Miss Mariette E. Ames, who was born in Seneca county and who is a daughter of Charles and Alvira Higley Ames, the former a native of Connecticut and the latter of New York. By his first marriage Mr. Anway became the father of three children, Martha, Ida J. and Adda M., the latter being the wife of E. Ogden, of Republic. No children have been born of the second marriage.

He married, first, Betsy A. Thompson¹⁴⁵, 6 October 1852, in Seneca County, Ohio. Born, 1826. Died, 31 October 1864, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio. Burial: October 1864, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio¹⁴⁶. Children:

- i. Martha E.⁶ Anway. Born, 15 July 1851, in Seneca County, Ohio. Died, 28 July 1851, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio¹⁴⁷. Burial: July 1851, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio¹⁴⁸. These dates are from the records, but dates from marriage and of first child's birth may be incorrect.
- ii. Infant Dau. Anway. Born, 1856, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio. Died, March 1856, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio. Burial: March 1856, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio¹⁴⁸.
- iii. Infant Son Anway. Born, 1861, in Seneca County, Ohio. Died, 10 September 1861, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio. Burial: September 1861, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio¹⁴⁸.
- iv. Ida J. Anway. Born, October 1862, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio. Died, 20 March 1864, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio. Burial: March 1864, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio¹⁴⁸.
- v. Myrta "Adda" Ann Anway.

He married, second, Marietta Ames, daughter of Charles Ames and Alvira Higley, 16 December 1869, in Seneca County, Ohio¹⁴⁹.

47. William Henry⁵ Anway (William Jr., 17)¹⁵⁰. Born, 22 June 1835, in Scipio Township, Seneca County, Ohio. Died, 6 June 1916, in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio. Death(2): 16 June 1916, in Scipio Township, Seneca County, Ohio¹⁵¹.

Part of a biographical sketch from "A Centennial Biographical History of Seneca County Ohio," 1902, pages 278, 279, 280.

William H. Anway represents one of the honored pioneer families of Seneca county, and his birth occurred on the old family homestead, in Scipio township, June 22, 1835. There he was reared, and in the common schools he acquired his early education, which was supplemented by study in the Republic Academy. To his father he gave the benefit of his services until his marriage, which important event in his life occurred on the 3rd of September, 1857, the lady of his choice being Miss Lucinda Tremaine, who was born in Fulton county, Ohio, a daughter of Warren and Nancy White Tremaine, who came to Seneca county about 1828, establishing their home in Scipio township.

Mr. and Mrs. Anway began their domestic life upon a farm which continued to be their place of abode until 1872, in which year they came to Republic. After two years, however, Mr. Anway resumed farming upon the old homestead, but when two more years had passed he sold that property and again came to Republic, where he continued until 1880. In that year he began farming upon a tract of land near the town, and there continued agricultural pursuits until 1901, when he retired from active business life and once more took up his abode in Republic. He is still the owner of one hundred and twenty acres of land, and of this eighty acres were entered from the government by his paternal grandfather, William Anway, and has since been owned by some representative of the name of Anway. Industry has characterized his business career and his sound judgment and careful management have been the means of bringing to him creditable and desirable success. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Anway was blessed with four children, but Emma, the oldest, died in 1872 at the age of fourteen years; Kate became the wife of A.L. Stickney, station agent at Republic, and died in 1884; William W. is a farmer of Scipio township; and Laura is the wife of C.E. Karshner, of Barberton, Ohio. In his political views Mr. Anway is a Republican, and keeping well informed on the questions and issues of the day, is enabled to support his position by intelligent argument. He has served as a member of the town council of Republic and is deeply interested in everything pertaining to the welfare and progress of his community. For more than a quarter of a century he has been a member of the Odd Fellows lodge of Republic and is most true and loyal to the teachings of this fraternity, which is based upon brotherly kindness and helpfulness. Throughout his entire life Mr. Anway has resided in Seneca county, and through sixty-seven years has witnessed its growth, development and progress, taking just pride in what has here been accomplished and bearing his part in the work of public improvement. The qualities of upright manhood have won for him high regard, and his worth is widely recognized.

56. Charles Henry⁶ Anway (Erastus W., 24). Born, 6 October 1873, in Cambridge, Story County, Iowa. Died, 21 February 1933, in Independence, Jackson County, Missouri. Burial: February 1933, in Lamoni, Decatur County, Iowa¹⁶¹.

Judy Coulthard, Lamoni, Iowa sent me the following newspaper article on Charles Anway, which appeared in the Saints Herald (date unknown).

Charles Henry Anway, fifth son of Erastus and Mary A. Anway was born October 6, 1873 in a little log cabin located at Cambridge, Iowa and after an illness of a number of months passed away at the home of his son, George, in Independence, Missouri, Tuesday, February 21, 1933, age 59 years, and 15 days. At eleven years of age in company of his parents, he moved from Iowa to Kansas, passing through Lamoni while the first general conference of the L.D.S. Church to be held in the basement of the old brickchurch was in session. In a short time the family moved to Nebraska and when he was 15 years old they returned to Iowa. He was united in Marriage, August 12, 1896, with Miss Catharine Ada Higgins, at Nevada, Iowa. To this union were born 7 children. Mr. and Mrs. Anway started their home together in Collins, Iowa, but soon moved to Rhodes, Iowa, and later to Sioux Falls, South Dakota, where their three oldest children were born. Some years later the family moved to Akron, Iowa, where he held a position as rural mail carrier for eight years. From Akron they moved to Lamoni, where for a time he sold goods for the Rawleigh Company, and in 1914 accepted a position as caretaker of the new school building in which work he continued until the Christmas vacation of the present school year when he found it necessary to give up the work on account of the serious condition of his health. During those years of service to the public schools he was more than a caretaker, he was an adviser to hundreds of boys, an assistant to the faculty after substituting in the manual training department and some times in the lower grades. When a young man, Mr. Anway united with the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, being Baptized by Elder

67. Susan Jane⁶ Anway (James Allen, 34). Born, 8 November 1906, in Chatfield, Fillmore County, Minnesota.

The following was sent to my by Dawn Hince, a granddaughter of Susan.

Susan Jane was the middle child in a family of six brothers, and six sisters. There were many times in her childhood that food was scarce. One day the family had just lettuce with milk on it to eat.

One day at the age of sixteen she got her parents permission to go work for a farmer. Well, that wasn't exactly the truth. Her future husband had made plans to go to Rochester, Minnesota, and get married. And that is what they did with the farmer, and his wife as witnesses.

Over the years they were to have four children. Three daughters, Kathleen, Dorothy, and Maxine and the last child was a son Lloyd. After twenty some years she and her suband Howard Francis Lifo were divorced. Both went on with their lives, and both remarried.

At this writing Susan is nearing eighty six years of age. She is a mother, grandmother, greatgrandmother, and great great grandmother. Howard Lifo passed away at the age of sixty nine years on December 18, 1969 in Denver, Colorado.

She married, first, Howard Francis Lifo, son of William Henry Lifo and Mary Catherine Empey, 22 November 1922, in Rochester, Olmsted County, Minnesota. 75. Ray Delbert "Donald"⁶ Anway (Lewis Lorenzo, 35). Born, 4 April 1908, in Alden Township, Hardin County, Iowa¹⁹⁸. Died, 15 November 1991, in Rochester, Olmsted County, Minnesota¹⁹⁹. Burial: 19 November 1991, in Douglas, Olmsted County, Minnesota²⁰⁰. Graduation: 13 May 1927, in Geneva, Franklin County, Iowa. Occupation: Retired Farmer.

Ray Delbert, called "Don or Donald" by his family, and Ray by his brothers and sisters; was born in a small rural community in the north central part of Iowa. He grew up on a farm in the "good old days" when farming was done with horses, and everything was done by hand. During his high school years he lived with and worked for George Allison on the farm that was later known as the Franklin County Home. While in school he played basketball and football and graduated from the 12th grade at Geneva High School, in a class of 6.

After graduation, he went to Austin, Minnesota, where he got a job at the George E. Hormel Packing Plant. While living in Austin, he came to Rochester to visit and met a young woman by the name of Doris Scott, whom he married in Austin and they had a son, Charles Faye. They were later divorced and he moved to Rochester, worked at Mac's Restaurant, later with Harold Bobzien at Sinclair Oil, then he got a job as gardener for Dr. Lewis B. Wilson, a renowned doctor, who worked for the Mayo Clinic. He helped plant the apple trees at the Wilson estate, which is now known as Assisi Heights.

Around 1938 he met Harriette Maxine Colvin, who was working for Dr. Frank Krusen, the Head of Physical Medicine Department at the Mayo Clinic. On January 28, 1939 in Charles City, Iowa, they were married, with Fred and Mabel Weiner as their attendants. Mabel Weiner is Don's older sister. For about one year Don and Harriet lived in a brick house owned by Dr. Krusen, located on the edge of Rochester, 1/2 miles from the Olmsted County Historical Center, then in 1940, they bought a farm from Charles Putman located in Kalmer township, west of Douglas and Genoa and 1/2 mile south on county road 105. They farmed on that 40 acres for about 12 years, then moved to a farm in Kalmer township located on the corner of county road 3 and 4 known as "Finland Farm", one of the Graham Farms. They farmed there until July 1969 when they had an auction and in October 1969 moved 1 mile west to a farm they bought from Jens Anderson.

Don went to work for a pallet company in Kasson and Harriet worked at St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester. After the pallet company in Kasson went out of business, Don worked for Dodge Feeders in Dodge Center and Hayfield. On June 16, 1984 Don and Harriette had another auction, sold their farm and moved to a home in northwest Byron, which they lived in for 5 years. They then moved to a house in the northeast section of town where Don remained until his death in November of 1991. Harriet is still living there in 1993.

He married, first, Doris Scott, 27 August 1928, in Austin, Mower County, Minnesota. Children:

131 i. Charles Faye⁷ Anway.

He married²⁰¹, second, Harriet Maxine [Robertson] Colvin, daughter of Charles Voltaire Colvin and Regina Mae Older, 28 January 1939, in Charles City, Floyd County, Iowa²⁰². Born, 25 October 1916, in Great Falls, Cascade County, Montana²⁰³. Baptism: 20 June 1926, in Methodist Church, Viroqua, Vernon County, Wisconsin²⁰⁴. Graduation: 7 June 1934, in Rochester, Olmsted County, Minnesota²⁰⁵. Occupation: Retired, St. Mary's Hospital

Harriet was born Mary Harriet Robertson to John J. Robertson and Ada Annie Wheeler in Great Falls, Montana and was given up for adoption by her parents. They were married and she was their third child, but we probably will never know their reasons for giving her up for adoption. A social worker knocked on the door of Charles and Regina Older Colvin and asked if they would like to take care of this little girl. They had no children and were delighted to have a child in their house. When she was about one year old they adopted her, then moved back to Rochester, Minnesota, where she grew up, attended and graduated from Rochester High School. Her father, Charles, died when she was about five years old, and Regina raised her alone. She was in the kindergarten class at Hawthorne Elementary School in 1921 and in 1991, seventy years later her great-granddaughter, Jessica Leigh Crandall, started kindergarten there. Harriet help her husband on the farm in the early years and then went to work for St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester, Minnesota, where after several years she retired from the laundry. Children:

132. Judith Rae⁷ Anway (Ray Delbert "Donald", 75). Born, 19 October 1939, in Rochester, Olmsted County, Minnesota²⁵⁸. Confirmation: 27 April 1952, in Byron, Olmsted County, Minnesota²⁵⁹. Graduation: 23 May 1957, in Byron, Olmsted County, Minnesota.

Judy as she is called by most people, grew up in rural Olmsted County, where she attended a rural one room school house, walking a mile each way, uphill. Learning to leave her shoes on all day, in school, was her first accomplishment. After sixth grade she attended Byron High School, where she graduated, then was employed as a billing and payroll clerk at Reynolds Wholesale in Rochester. When her children came along she retired from the outside work force and became active in Scouts, 4-H and school functions. In later years, she was employed at the Olmsted County Historical Society. With her friend Bev Jeanson, she taught a genealogy course at the local community college. Her time now is spent at the computer entering all the genealogy she has collected over the years and spending time with her granddaughters.

She married²⁶⁰ Ralph William Crandall Jr.²⁶¹, son of Ralph William Crandall Sr. and Vida Amelia Maxon, 14 July 1957, in Byron, Olmsted County, Minnesota²⁶². Born, 14 December 1935, in New Haven Township, Olmsted County, Minnesota²⁶³. Graduation: 28 May 1954, in Byron, Olmsted County, Minnesota. Occupation: Special Equipment Designer

After graduation from high school, Ralph was employed at John Deere Company in Waterloo, Iowa. When he was laid off he went to work for Minneapolis Honeywell in Minneapolis, Minnesota. After working there a year he applied for a position with and was hired by International Business Machines in Rochester, Minnesota. They sent him to Endicott, New York for training and in 1957 he started the Tool and Die program that was offered at IBM.

Ralph retired from IBM in 1990 after working there for 34 years. After some time off, he started working for McKeon-Schuller Inc. in Rochester, as a designer. Children:

- 211 i. Jeanne Marie⁸ Crandall.
- ii. Julie Ann Crandall. Born, 26 March 1961, in Rochester, Olmsted County, Minnesota. Died, 26 March 1961, in Rochester, Olmsted County, Minnesota. Baptism: 26 March 1961, in Rochester, Olmsted County, Minnesota. Burial: 29 March 1961, in Rochester, Olmsted County, Minnesota.
- 212 iii. Steven Donald Crandall.
- 213 iv. Connie Sue Crandall.

133. Ray Edward⁷ Anway (Ray Delbert "Donald", 75). Born, 2 December 1942, in Byron, Olmsted County, Minnesota. Graduation: 27 May 1960, in Byron, Olmsted County, Minnesota²⁶⁴. Occupation: Retired Computer technician IBM

After graduation, Ray, called "Buzz" by his family, went to the Austin Technical College, then was hired by IBM-Rochester and worked as a computer technician, until July 1991, when he retired. He is an avid fisherman and also does some hunting. He and his wife, Marilyn live in rural Byron.

He married²⁶⁵ Marilyn Janet Wagner, daughter of Marvin Wagner and Genevieve Ladwig, 8 June 1963, in Kasson, Dodge County, Minnesota. Born, 22 March 1945, in Blue Earth, Faribault County, Minnesota. Graduation: 2 May 1963, in Kasson, Dodge County, Minnesota²⁶⁶. Children:
