245. Adelbert Stanley⁹ Anway (Carlton Luther, 230). Born, 2 January 1943, in Mason, Ingham County, Michigan.

A brief history of one branch of the Anway family as told by Adelbert Stanley Anway.

I don't remember to much of my great grandfather as he died when I was four years old. I do remember my great grandmothers as I had three at one time. My great grandma Frost, great grandma Bedford, and my grandma Anway all lived into their 80's before they passed on. My grandpa Anway and I were very close as we (my family) lived in the same house for the first seventeen years of my life. It was a big square farmhouse in Wheatfield Township in Ingham County, Michigan with 180 acres to raise registered Angus cattle and registered Yorkshire hogs. Right after the war my father and his mother went to work at Oldsmobile Division of GMC, Lansing, Michigan. They both retired from there. My grandmother worked until she was 65 and my dad worked until he got thirty years in and got out with the new retirement plan at that time.

My granddad waited a while after the war until he got a job with the U.S. Government working at RED Motors, Lansing, Michigan as an inspector when RED was building Army trucks. He worked there until RED, later Diamond RED, lost their contract just before it folded up. His last year of employment was spent at Continental Motors, Muskegon, Michigan as a final buy off inspector in the motor test area. The motors being built at that time were put in the M60 tanks for the U.S. Army.

Years ago, when my dad was a young lad, they lived in Williamston, Michigan running a grocery store and meat market. When the depression hit my grandparents lost the store because of outstanding accounts with their customers. You see, at that time it was customary to deliver groceries to the homes and the accounts would be carried on a continuing basis to be paid maybe once a month.

They then moved west of Mason, Michigan on Columbia Road onto five acres where they stayed during the remaining depression years. Granddad got a job in Lansing at RED Motors building trucks and cars on a intermittent schedule, not always putting in a full week because of the hard times.

Sometime in the middle 30's they moved to the farm located in Wheatfield Township in Ingham County on Zimmer Road. My dad and mother both graduated from Dansville Agricultural School, dad in 1938 and ma in 1939. I and my sister graduated from there also, 1961 and 1964 respectively. I worked at various jobs for a few years before coming to Oldsmobile here in Lansing, Michigan. Presently I have 27.5 years seniority, but do not plan at the present time to retire when I get my 30 years in. Now I'm at the Delta Engine Plant, the home of the Quad 4 engine, in the crankshaft department as a statistical data analyst and information organizer.

My folks and grandma live in Ellenton, Florida where my dad keeps busy mowing lawns in the mobile home park they reside in. My wife keeps busy babysitting for three families and sells Avon products in the evening. We live in the country on 10 acres and raise a garden, some field corn, and hogs to show at the county fair.

He married Helen Louise Kemler, 27 June 1964, in White Oak Township, Ingham County, Michigan. Born, 12 November 1941, in Stockbridge, Ingham County, Michigan. Children:

- i. Rodney Charles¹⁰ Anway. Born, 13 October 1968, in Nellis AFB, Las Vegas, Nevada.
- ii. Renae Carol Anway. Born, 28 March 1978, in Lansing, Ingham County, Michigan.

CHAPTER II

David did not change his name to Anway, but the records show that his grandson, William Horton Nanny became the first of his descendants to take the name of Anway. As far as we know, none of the brothers or sister of Warren Horton adopted the Anway name. It would be interesting to know the reason for this.

According to the National Genealogical Society Quarterly, Volume 20, Number 2 June 1932, David Nanny applied September 3, 1832 from Warwick, Orange County New York; born on Long Island, New York August 1757; enlisted in said Warwick in 1776 under Capt. Wisner, Col. Newkirk's Regt.; was stationed for 4 months at Fort Constitution.

In the summer of 1776 he volunteered under Capt. William Blain, Lieut. Thomas Sears & David Rogers, Col. Nicoll's Regt. He was in the battle of White Plains. In the winter of 1777 he served for 3 mos. under Capt. Birtholf. In the autumn of 1778 he served 1 month under Capt. Colvin Shepard at Ramapo. In 1778 he was marched by Capt. Shepard to the Minisink frontier on 2 occasions & served 2 months.
