MILITARY: CSA, Pvt. in Capt. J. M. Scruggs Co. H, 7th Miss. Regt.

OCCUPATION: Farmer and Constable.

Martin abandoned the family after his return to Mississippi on being discharged from the CSA army in Kentucky. As a youngster, when I asked my grandmother, Nettie, about her father, she knew nothing about him except that he had abandoned the family. Obviously, he was not held in high esteem. A note found in a trunk in 1982 in attic of Walter Greer Nanney, after his death, that had belonged to John H. Nanney, offers a clue as to the disappearance of Martin.

On 15 January 1847, Henry Lee sold some belongings to R. D. Turnbull in order to settle his debts to Martha G. Nanney. The identity of this Martha is unknown. It is not likely she was his sister, Martha, who was younger and later migrated with their father, Daniel, to Tennessee. It was shortly afterward the sale that Henry Lee and his brothers left for Tennessee. Henry Lee departed Davidson County, Tennessee in 1850 for Arkansas along with other families. After crossing the Mississippi and settling in the Bootheel area of Arkansas they became disillusioned with just about everything about the area. They again packed up, headed east, again crossing the Mississippi and finally settling in Weakley County, Tennessee.

The three oldest sons of Henry Lee married the three youngest daughters of James J. Paschall & Candis Rose Weldon from Warren County, North Carolina.

Mary was "slow" by one account but another says she was alert and "feisty". She was under four feet tall, being accepted as a dwarf. She was conscious of her size and considered herself ugly, refusing to have her picture taken and never marrying. She is said to have died at the County Farm and to be buried at Walker's Chapel, now Grove Hill Cemetery, in an unmarked grave.
