She married William Lawson YANCEY.

Yancey descendants attending the SAR Revolutionary War Grave Marking Ceremony, September 28, 1985 were: Crimora Waite, Catherine W. deRosset, Sarah Ratrie Witten, Evelyn May Threlkeld, Linda Yancey Threlkeld, Barbara B. Vaughn, and Deborah Vaughn. Others attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frantz, Mrs. Dale J. Metzinger, Regent of Culpeper Minute Men Chapter DAR. Compatriot Jennings Flathers, Editor of THE VIRGINIA BULLETIN, VSSAR, Compatriot Chester E. May, Mr. and Mrs. Claude I. Guinn, and Mr. Harold Vaughn.

NOTE: The town of Culpeper was first called Fairfax, being named for Lord Fairfax VI, the son of Lord Fairfax who married Catherine, daughter and heir of Lord Thos. Culpeper for whom the county was named. Because the courthouse had been established in the county seat 10 years before, the town was formed and known as CULPEPER COURTHOUSE, the name Fairfax, never caught on.
