MARY SCHWEITZER AND SAMUEL AXT

Mary Schweitzer, second daughter of Jacob and Barbara (Jantzi) Schweitzer was born in February of 1864 (the 20th according to the church record, the 2nd according to the Axt genealogy). She was born and raised in Mornington Township near the hamlet of Topping. At the age of 16 she went with her parents to Nebraska.

A young man, Samuel Axt, from Ontario went west as many adventurous young men did. On December 21, 1886 Samuel Axt and Mary Schweitzer were married, probably in Holt County, because this is where the Schweitzer family was living by this time.

Samuel and Mary must have remained in Holt County. where they farmed. The exact location of their farm is not known. Less than a year after their marriage, Mary gave birth to a son, but both died and were buried together in the Amish Mennonite cemetery north of O'Neill. Following is the obituary which appeared in the Herald of Truth:

"Axt.-- On the 2d of Dec., in Holt County, Neb., Maria Schweitzer, wife of Samuel Axt, aged 23 years, 9 months and 18 days. A son was born to her, but both the dear young mother and the child soon passed away. They were laid into one coffin and buried in the Amish Mennonite graveyard. Services by C. Ernst and P. P. Hershberger from I Thess. 5:2-4. She was a beloved sister in the church and leaves a deeply bereaved husband, parents, six brothers and sisters and many friends to mourn her loss."

Sam returned to Canada and married Anna Schmidt. They had no family. Both are buried in the Lutheran cemetery at Phillipsburg, Ontario.

ELIZABETH SCHWEITZER AND JOHN K. HERSHBERGER

Elizabeth Schweitzer was the fourth child born to Barbara Jantzi and Jacob Schweitzer. According to the Wellesley church record book, she was born on August 4, 1865. The obituary in the Gospel Herald gave her birthdate as September 6, 1866.

middle years, John and Elizabeth bought 80 acres northwest of Milford and built the house, barn, etc. on it. At retirement they sold it and bought an acreage east of Milford and lived there until death.

In 1880, when Elizabeth was 15, her family (parents, eight brothers and sisters and brother-in-law, Andrew Nafziger) moved to Seward County, Nebraska. Some of the Schweitzers went to Holt County in 1883, and it is possible that Elizabeth spent some years there also.

Elizabeth and John's youngest son Earl wrote: "In response to your letter regarding my mother, Elizabeth Schweitzer, I am sorry I can't give you a lot of information. I was the tenth child born to my parents, and I guess I thought my parents would live forever.

In 1887 Elizabeth married John K. Hershberger, son of Paul P. and Magdalena (Kuhns) Hershberger. Mrs. Vernon Hershberger reported that in their ciate the fact that she was born in Canada until 1926 when Dad, Mom, my sister Amelia and I took a trip to Ontario. I must say I was really impressed with her birthplace near Kitchener and the surrounding area, including Niagara Falls. Also met and stayed with her sister, Kate Nafziger and her children, whose names I really can't remember. The Nafzigers were farm people as was my family.

As to whether my parents lived in and around Milford all their lives, I am quite sure of that. I vaguely remember Dad talking about Holt County, but that may have been before marriage."

Elizabeth and John lost their daughter Katie at the age of nine. Elizabeth and her sister, Katie Nafziger, both died the same day -- Jan 9, 1934. Elizabeth and John are buried at East Fairview, Milford, Nebraska.

The remaining nine Hershberger children married, and most of them farmed or operated businesses in the Milford area. Besides farming, Jerry and Sarah bought "The Pines" in Milford. This had been a hospital which they renovated into an apartment house. At the time of their death they were living in their own house across the street from the apartment.

Daniel became an auto mechanic, and John had his own garage and service station. Lena's husband, Marvin Danner, owned and operated a semi-truck between Iowa and Texas. Elmer moved to Arizona after his retirement from his barber business. Ida and John Erb farmed until they retired in Milford. Grandson Michael and his wife are enjoying the quilt that Ida made for them. Amelia, who is not well at the time of this writing, lives in California.

Berneice (Mrs. Paul) Yoder wrote concerning Cora and Noah Reber:

"My parents, Cora and Noah Reber, lived in Iowa until I was five and then moved to Nebraska. Dad was the youngest of his family and Mother was the oldest girl of her family. My dad liked to go hunting and liked to ride the motorcycle. He was a very ambitious person and liked to go traveling. They both liked to sing. They enjoyed their family. My father's brothers enjoyed carpentry work, and now our son Steven enjoys the same thing in his off-work hours. He loves the beauty of wood and loves to finish furniture. My mother loved to sew and crochet, which we all do. We all like music, sewing and playing games."

Earl, the youngest, was in the drug store business for 49 years, the owner for the last 25. On his letterhead was written:

BARBARA JANTZI AND JACOB SCHWEITZER FAMILY

JACOB J. AND SARAH ANN (ALLEN) SCHWEITZER

The obituaries of Jacob J. and Sarah Ann Schweitzer tell their story very well. We quote the following:

"Jacob J. Schweitzer, son of Jacob and Barbara Schweitzer, was born August 10, 1867 at Topping, Ontario, and departed this life July 26, 1940 at the age of 72 years, 11 months and 16 days at Cleveland, Ohio where he had been confined in the hospital for the past four weeks.

Mr. Schweitzer was enroute to Batavia, New York, by way of bus to visit relatives. He was found in Cleveland, lying on the street near the bus depot with both legs injured and was taken to a hospital for care. The cause of his injury was not known. His son Ralph went to Cleveland last week and was at his bedside when death came.

In 1880 at the age of 13 he moved with his parents to a farm near Beaver Crossing, Nebr. where they lived until 1883, then moving to O'Neill, Nebraska.

On February 1, 1892 he was united in marriage with Sarah Ann Allen to which union was born seven children.

In 1910, he with his family moved to Milford, Nebraska where he has made his home, and for nearly thirty years has worked at the blacksmith trade.¹

He united with the Amish Mennonite Church at an early age and remained a faithful member until his death....

The body arrived in Milford Tuesday noon and services were held at 1:30 p.m. at the Volland Mortuary and at 2 o'clock at the A(mish) M(enno-nite) Church, with Rev. Will Schlegel officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery."

"Sarah Ann Allen Schweitzer was born May 4, 1876 on a farm near Baden, Ontario, Canada and passed to her heavenly reward at her home in Milford, Nebraska, August 23, 1937 at the age of 61 years, 4 months, and 19 days....

At the age of nine she moved to O'Neill, Nebraska with her mother and spent her girlhood days on a farm near there.

On February 1, 1892 she was joined in holy matrimony with Jacob J. Schweitzer. To this union were born seven children. Three children, Margaret Loretta, and two infant sons and her father Adam² Allen preceded her in death.

In 1894 she was baptized and received in the Amish Mennonite Church at O'Neill, Nebraska, by Bishop Joseph Schlegel. In this faith she remained until death.

She liked nothing better than to give and make others happy, even though it was to her own discomfort. She loved things of nature and nothing gave her more enjoyment than to work in her garden and flowers and watch the wild life in the trees and on the ground."

BARBARA JANTZI AND JACOB SCHWEITZER FAMILY

CHRISTIAN J. AND NANCY (JAUSI) SCHWEITZER

Christian J. Schweitzer was born in 1869, to Jacob and Catherine (Jantzi) Schweitzer, in Mornington Township, Perth County, Ontario, Canada. In 1880, he went with his parents and family to Seward County, Nebraska and later to Holt County.

On December 24, 1893, he married Nancy Jausi, daughter of John and Margaret (Brunk) Jausi. Someone in the family indicated that Christian and Nancy were married in Wellesley, Ontario. We have not found any other documentation of their place of marriage. Nancy's parents also migrated to Nebraska, but we do not know whether this was before 1893 or later. One wonders whether Christian may have accompanied Andrew and Catherine Nafziger when they returned to Canada, where he met and married Nancy.

After their marriage, they lived a short time in Missouri and then returned to Milford where they farmed and reared their family.

According to his obituary in the Gospel Herald, he died at his home in Milford, Nebraska, at the age of 60. He had been in failing health. Funeral services were conducted by Wm. R. Eicher and J. E. Zimmerman.

DAVID J. AND LAURA BELLE (STUTZMAN) SCHWEITZER

David J. Schweitzer, seventh child of Jacob and Barbara (Jantzi) Schweitzer, was born in Mornington Township, Perth County, Ontario, Canada. When David was nine years of age, the family moved to Milford, Nebraska. His oldest sister Catherine was married to Andrew Nafziger, and they accompanied the Schweitzer family. About 1883 the family moved to Holt County. In 1887, only a year after her marriage, David's second oldest sister, Mary (Schweitzer) Axt, died in childbirth and was buried in the Mennonite cemetery at O'Neill.

From the Family Record, David J. Schweitzer and Laura B. Stutzman, 1982, we quote the following:

"D. J. was not one to talk much of his past life. He did tell about one sport they enjoyed at O'Neill, which was wolf-hunting on horseback. They would have to take turns chasing, because the wolves would outrun the horses.

Unknown to their parents, they also attended many dances in O'Neill. After the family had gone to bed, they would sneak out through the windows. Some of them played the fiddle (as they were called then) for their parties."

Due to drought, the Nafzigers left Holt County and returned to Ontario about 1893. The rest of the Schweitzer family returned to Milford, probably at different times.

VII. David J. Schweitzer

In 1898, David married Laura Belle Stutzman, daughter of Steven and Amanda (Mast) Stutzman, at Milford. Laura was born in Holmes County, Ohio.

Also from the Family Record: "She remembered the train ride as a small child, when the family moved west to Milford, Nebraska. Milford was open prairie then, and her mother was wishing the train would have a wreck so that they could return to Ohio. They were leaving 17 of Laura's aunts and uncles and her grandparents in Ohio."

D. J. and Laura lived in Milford until 1915. During this time ten children were born. (The youngest, a daughter, was still born.) In March of 1915 they moved to Wood River, Nebraska. They first farmed three miles north of Wood River. Later they built a two-story, five-bedroom home with a full basement. The total cost was $1,000.

In 1947, D. J. and Laura moved to Lebanon, Oregon. David died in October of 1958 from hardening of the arteries, and Laura died of a heart attack three months later.

Several grandchildren wrote about their memories of their grandparents in the Family Record. Excerpts are reprinted here:

"I think of Grandpa's dining room when I think of their home in Wood River. It seemed like a large room. The table always seemed to be opened all the way. I remember the carnival glasses that we drank out of and the pitcher that went with it. Of course the food was delicious. I liked Grandma's homemade bread and pie."
(by Elaine Hochstettler)

"What I remember about Grandpa's house was the half-gallon mollasses can sitting on the pantry shelf, and then at meal time we would pour some on a slice of bread."
(by Evelyn Roth)

"It seems like Grandma always had such good food. I loved the smell and taste of the coffee, and she almost always had cheese. We were always warned we would 'dry up' if we ate too much cheese. I remember less of Grandpa. I know he had a white beard, and liked to tease us with his cane.

I remember so vividly that Clayton planted a clump of trees in the back yard, then was upset when the grandkids climbed on them! Now that I have had a family of my own and also young trees, I can see his point. We had a lot of fun in the back yard. I also remember the pretty flowers at Grandma's and at Ida's. Uncle Pearl's also had a nice back yard and patio, and also some strange things called 'goose berries.' I didn't like them at all.

I remember when Grandpa and Grandma lived with us on the Schumucker Dairy. They had two rooms. One was the kitchen and living area and the other the bedroom. One day a tramp from the nearby railroad stopped for something to eat. Grandma let him in the house and fed him. After he left, Grandma said she was going to put the chair he sat on out in the rain to have it washed because she didn't like the smell of him. I wanted to know what a tramp smelled like, so I went up and smelled the chair. I remember Grandpas laughing and laughing about that.

As I've grown older, I wonder if it wasn't a big adjustment for Grandpas to make, moving to Oregon in their later years. I'm glad they did though, because we probably wouldn't have known them. It was exciting when the rest of the families from back east would visit. Lots of times it meant a trip out to see the Oregon Coast and play in the sand hills." (by Myrna Roth)

"As a child, to me, Grandpa and Grandma Schweitzer were two very special people. I remember Grandma as always being pleasant, with a smile on her face. She was a very good cook, and her coffee cakes were one of my favorites. Grandpa, I remember as being a kind man. He spent a lot of his relaxing time sitting in a rocker by the furnace reading the Bible. He loved to sing gospel songs. Usually he had white peppermint candy in his pocket, and, like most kids, I loved candy. I often wonder, did I hint around for candy, or did I just come right out and ask for it? Either way, it always worked.

Threshing time was a big even. It meant getting up early and Mom not having time to fix breakfast for us kids. Goodie, this meant breakfast at Grandma's house. She usually fixed bread with plum jam and corn flakes.

In the forenoon, it meant baking pies, butchering chickens, and other things. Come noon, a tub of water was filled, and, with towels and basins, was put under a tree or wherever there was shade, for the thresher men to wash up. By that time a good dinner was provided. I could never understand why us kids always had to be last to eat. At break time a five-gallon cream can was filled either with iced tea or lemonade. At the end of the day came supper, which usually consisted of boloney, baker bread (what a treat), also cheese, pork and beans, among other things.

Other times when going to Grandma's to visit, we would find her in the garden, busy hoeing, wearing her starched sunbonnet and her apron. Often she would fill her apron with vegetables before coming into the house. Other times she would pick up a few apples.

When I was eleven years old, Dad and Mom decided to move to Colorado. I felt very unhappy about leaving Grandpa and Grandma and all the other relatives. To me, it seemed like we were going to move into another world. I didn't see them very often after that, until I was married, and moved to Oregon. I enjoyed them until they were called to their home in Glory.

Thank You, Lord, for Grandpas and Grandmas."
