

JOHN AND MARY (YANCEY) ULRICH FAMILY

PETER AND ANNA (HUNZIKER) ULRICH

Besides being a butcher, cheesemaker and feed mill manager at various times in his life, Peter Ulrich held the offices of town tax collector, supervisor of the Town of New Bremen and Lewis County clerk. He held the latter position from 1919-1958 (39 years). In July, 1954, an article appeared in the Lowville Journal & Republican which told his story very well. We reprint most of it here.

"Peter J. Ulrich, believed to be New York state's oldest county clerk in points of age and service, is a candidate for Republican re-nomination in the Sept. 14 primary.

The Lowville man, who will be 80 on his next birthday, is seeking his 13th consecutive three-year term. He is now completing his 36th year in the office. . . .

Mr. Ulrich, the county clerk, was born in the area known as High Falls on the Beaver River, Town of Croghan, on May 8, 1875. He was the son of the late John and Mary Yancey Ulrich.

When he was five his father, who had operated a sawmill at High Falls, sold the enterprise and the family moved to Long Pond on the west branch of the Oswegatchie River. Here the father built another sawmill. Peter Ulrich remembers the area as virgin forest.

The county clerk attended a country school located between Belfort and Long Pond until he was 12. He then attended school at Belfort and later attended part of a term at Croghan.

He worked from the age of 17 to 23 in his father's woods, three miles from the sawmill, cutting pine logs in the winters and hauling them to the river for the drive to the sawmill in the spring. The logs were sawed in the summer and then taken to market over the frozen ground in the following winter. He operated the sawmill after his father became ill and was unable to work when Peter was 17.

At the age of 23, Mr. Ulrich went to Croghan where he operated a meat market for several years.

When he was 25 he married Anna Hunziker of Croghan at the Beaver Falls Evangelical Church, on July 2, 1901.

That same year, in September, he purchased a cheese factory at Kirscherville, Town of New Bremen, which he operated 16 years.

His political career began in 1905 when he was nominated for collector of the Town of New Bremen on the Republican ticket. He was elected . . .

In the fall of 1917 Mr. Ulrich left politics and refused the nomination. He came to Lowville and in 1918 was nominated for county clerk and was elected. During the years since then Mr. Ulrich has been reelected every time. He has thus served twelve consecutive terms and is completing his 36th year as county clerk. . . .

Mrs. Ulrich died Sept. 5, 1950. The couple had six children . . .

Mr. Ulrich is a member of the Lowville Baptist Church, Lowville Lodge 134 F. and A. M., and Lowville Elks Lodge 1605. He spends his spare time gardening, and is fond of hunting and fishing. His love for the woods he first knew as a boy has never diminished.

Mr. Ulrich lives on Davenport Place, Lowville."

JOHN AND MARY (YANCEY) ULRICH FAMILY

MATTIE ULRICH AND DANIEL ALBRECHT

Mattie Ulrich, third child of John and Mary (Yancey) Ulrich, was born while her father ran a sawmill at High Falls between Croghan and Belfort, New York. This area is now under water due to the building of a dam and power house. She was only about two years old when the family moved into the woods at Long Pond, and this is where she spent her growing-up years. As the children reached school age, they would stay with their Yancey grandparents at Belfort. Grandfather Peter Yancey operated a gristmill there. Grandmother Yancey died when Mattie was 12, and Grandfather died the following year. Mattie's schooling, no doubt, did not continue beyond that.

Mattie probably alternated between helping at home and working out for wages until the spring of 1904, when she accompanied her parents to Pigeon, Michigan. There she met Daniel Albrecht, who had gone to Pigeon with several members of the Albrecht family. They were from the same area in Canada that the Ulrichs were originally from. Daniel's father had died and Annie remarried to Jacob Christner. Daniel's mother was the daughter of Magdalena (Jantzi) Kennel, sister of Joseph Jantzi and step-sister of Peter Yancey, Mattie Ulrich's grandfather. Did Mattie and Daniel know they were related? At any rate, it must have been "love at first sight," because by December 6 of the same year that Mattie arrived in Michigan, they were married.

A year after their marriage, Dan and Mattie had twin daughters, whom they named Viola and Violetta. John and Sidney were also born at Pigeon. Around 1917 they moved to Imlay City where Mary was born. Mattie died in 1926 at the age of 47 and is buried in the cemetery adjoining the Bethany Mennonite Church at Imlay City, Michigan.

Dan accompanied his children to New York and is buried at Akron, New York.

JOHN Y. AND ESTHER (STEINER) ULRICH

John Y. Ulrich (John Ulrich III) was the fourth child of John and Mary (Yancey) Ulrich. He was the first one born in the log cabin in the woods at Long Pond.

John accompanied his parents to Pigeon, Michigan in 1904, but returned to Lewis County, New York.

John married Esther Steiner, who is still living at the time of this writing. Esther reported that after their marriage they bought a farm in New Bremen, New York, where they farmed for 21 years. They sold the farm in 1940 and moved to Castorland. In 1966 they moved to Beaver Falls where Esther still resides. John and Esther had two daughters, Norene and DeEtta. DeEtta died in 1938 at the age of 19.

JOHN AND MARY (YANCEY) ULRICH FAMILY

BENJAMIN ULRICH

Benjamin Ulrich, son of John and Mary (Yancey) Ulrich, was born in 1885 at Ulrich's Sawmill, two miles from Long Pond, Township of Croghan, Lewis County, New York.

We have quoted extensively from Ben's letters in which he described life at Long Pond during the time of his childhood. See pages 371 - 376 . We are also indebted to him for writing down the stories of John Ulrich's coming to Canada.

When Ben was 19, the family moved to Pigeon, Michigan. During his youth he travelled out west but returned to work on his father's farm at Imlay City.

For several years Ben worked at Depew's in Lewis County, but moved back to Michigan and bought some land and a house near Mount Clemens. He worked as a fireman (attended a boiler) at St. Joseph's Hospital for 25 years.

He died on May 11, 1974 at the Clinton View Nursing Home, Mount Clemens, at the age of 89. His obituary states that he was the oldest member of Bethany Mennonite Church, Imlay City. He was buried in the adjoining cemetery.

JOHN AND MARY (YANCEY) ULRICH FAMILY

MINNIE ULRICH AND JOHN A. YOUSEY

Minnie Ulrich was born in 1888 at the residence of the Ulrich family at Long Pond in Lewis County, New York. She was the sixth child of John Ulrich and Mary Yancey.

An obituary from a Lewis County newspaper in 1962, summarized her life as follows:

Croghan, Sept. 18.--The funeral for Mrs. Minnie Ulrich Yousey, 74, widow of John Yousey and a former Croghan resident, who died Thursday at her home in Akron was held at the Clarence Center Mennonite church Sunday. Burial was in Good cemetery at Clarence.

She is survived by five sons, Floyd, Edward, Norman, Joseph and John, Jr., all in the Akron area; one sister, Mrs. Richard (Louise) Wideman, Akron; three brothers, Benjamin Ulrich, Michigan, Peter Ulrich, Lowville, John Ulrich, Castorland, and nephews and nieces.

Mrs. Yousey was born, July 31, 1888, a daughter of John and Mary Yancey Ulrich, in the Long Lake (Pond) area. The family moved to Croghan and operated a farm on the Croghan-Lowville road, now the Gingerich farm. She attended the "Brewery Hill" school and was married to John Yousey, a Croghan native, in Michigan.* He died Nov. 29, 1958. The couple lived in Michigan before moving to Akron.

*The Ulrich family moved to Michigan about 1904. Minnie married John Yousey in 1913 at Pigeon, Michigan. Their four oldest children were born there. The Ulrichs also lived at Imlay City for a while. Minnie's father died there. Minnie and John Yousey moved to Clarence Center, New York, about 1926. Minnie's mother and sister, Louise, and family soon followed.

JOHN AND MARY (YANCEY) ULRICH FAMILY

LOUISE ULRICH AND RICHARD WIDEMAN

Louise Ulrich, the youngest of the John Ulrich family, was born on April 24, 1894 in the frame house at Long Pond, Croghan, New York. She was very young when they moved out of the woods on to a farm close to Croghan.

Arlene (Wideman) Snyder submitted the following concerning her parents:

"Mom remembered living at the house and farm in Croghan. They moved to Pigeon, Michigan, around 1904. She was about ten years old.

Dad worked for John and Mary Ulrich on the farm in Pigeon, Michigan. He and Mom were married in 1919 and lived with her parents on the farm. In 1920 or 21 they all moved to Imlay City on another farm. This is where Grandpa Ulrich died.

In 1927, Dad, Mom, Grandma Ulrich and the two children, Leona and Leon, moved to Akron, New York on a farm. Grandma Ulrich made her home with us until she passed away in 1941. She was a special part of our family. Clara and I were born at this farm.

In 1953, Mom and Dad left the farm and built a house in the town of Akron. Leon and my husband Leighton became partners and took over the home farm. Dad worked at Perry's Freezer and Locker Service as a meat cutter for about 18 years. Then he worked part-time at a service station.

He sure had a lot of ambition! He was nearly 80 years old when he quit working.

After Dad passed away, Mom stayed with Leona and spent most of the summer with us. We took turns caring for her until she passed away at Leona's home on August 29, 1979, at the age of 84.

Mom and Dad enjoyed their garden and flowers. Mom enjoyed flowers so very much and her house was full of plants. She could make anything grow and blossom. She enjoyed sharing the surplus from the garden and flowers with the neighbors. The grandchildren thought Grandma's chicken and dressing and homemade rolls were the best. She did enjoy having the family for a good Sunday dinner.

Mom was active in the "sewing circle" at church for many years. Mom and Dad always took all of us to church with them regularly to attend special meetings and church services. The church was a vital part of our up-bringing. Our family always enjoyed singing together and the love for music has come down through the generations to the grandchildren and great grandchildren. Mom was rather a quiet person in public places, but she was a praying Mother. I'm sure many of her prayers were answered. She was grateful she was able to take care of Dad until he passed away at their home. Our parents were loving, caring persons, and we have many fond memories of them. We all miss them very much.
