CATHERINE JANTZI AND JOSEPH B. LICHTI FAMILY

CATHERINE LICHTI AND JOHN GASCHO

Catherine Lichti, the fourth child of Joseph B. and Catherine Lichti, was the one to receive the traditional family female name. She was probably born on Lot #9, Con. II of the West Section of Wellesley Township. She was almost 12 years old when the family moved across the road and closer to Kingwood.

A few years before the Lichtis moved to their second farm, the bishop of their congregation, Christian Gascho, died. He left a widow, Mary (Schwartzentruber) Gascho, and two small children. Less than a year later two-year-old Christina died also. This left the widow and nine-year-old John on the farm on the east half of Lot #5, Con. II. In 1875 John S. Erb from Wilmot married the widow and purchased the farm from the executors of Christian Gascho. Thus, when the Lichtis moved to their new location in 1876, they had the John S. Erb family in their immediate neighborhood, and this Erb family included young John Gascho.

In 1890 John Gascho and Catherine Lichti were married. The following year they purchased the south half of Lot #4, Con. II from Christian B. Jantzi (son of Michael). Their laneway entered from the sideroad, south of Kingwood.

John Gascho's father had been a very influential minister and bishop even though he died at an early age. John must have had his father's qualities, for in 1898 he was ordained deacon in the Wellesley Amish Mennonite congregation which had its meetinghouse at the present Mapleview Mennonite Church location. In 1911 the Wellesley congregation had a division over the acceptance of Sunday School and other innovations. Deacon John Gascho accompanied the more conservative group which formed the congregation now known as Cedar Grove. John was ordained minister in 1913.

John and Catherine were blessed with five children -- four sons and a daughter. John and Mary are still living at the time of writing. Catherine died at age 65, but John lived to be almost 85. They are both buried in the Cedar Grove Amish Mennonite cemetery.

IV. Catherine Lichti

Baptismal Certificate for Menno Lichti

Translation:

Menno Lichti was born the 30th September in the year 1865

and was baptized the 4th September in the year 1881
 by Bishop Johannes Jantzi and the whole church were all* witnesses -----

I was baptized in thy name
 God Father Son and Holy Ghost
 I was counted to thy name

to the people who are called holy to thee

There is in me	which thy will,
no drop of	Lord, does not
blood	do

Notes:

The letters in and surrounding the heart may be any decorative. If they have meaning, I have not been able to decipher them.

*This is a guess -- I cannot really decipher the German.

 The German word has too many letters. If it is supposed to be Samen, it would mean "seed;"
 if Namen, it means "name." I have chosen name as the preferable translation.

MENNO AND ELIZABETH (JANTZI) LICHTI

Menno Lichti, fifth child of Joseph B. and Catherine Lichti, was born in Wellesley Township. In 1890 he was married to Elizabeth Jantzi, daughter of Joseph G. Jantzi and Catherine Schwartzentruber. Menno and Elizabeth were second cousins. Elizabeth's twin sister, Leah, married Menno's brother Rudy.

The grandchildren of Menno and Elizabeth submitted the following tribute to their grandparents: "Menno and Elizabeth lived on a farm in Wellesley Township with his brother-in-law, Menno Schmidt, the first few years of their marriage. They then moved to a farm in Mornington Township (see map on page 23) and lived there until their only daughter Katie got married to Jacob Z. Kuepfer. When Jacob and Katie sold the farm and moved to Millbank, Menno and Elizabeth moved with them.

Menno was ordained to the ministry in 1897 at about 32 years of age. He was ordained in the Mornington Old Order Amish Mennonite Congregation. He had a friendly personality and could make up with anyone. Preaching seemed to come easy for him. He would take his part in church on into his nineties. He was always active and did light chores until about two weeks before he died at the age of 95.

Elizabeth was also active in her early years, but later was bothered with arthritis. She was totally blind six years before she died at 85 years of age. Her blindness did not keep her from being a cheerful person."

Menno and Elizabeth are buried in the Old Order cemetery on the 7th Line in Wellesley Township.

It was through the Menno Lichti family that the Joseph Jantzi estate papers were preserved in the Joseph B. Lichti family Bible. Someone designed a birth and baptismal certificate for Menno. The copy of the certificate and translation are found on the previous page

RUDOLPH AND LEAH (JANTZI) AND RACHEL (SCHRAG) LICHTI

Rudolph Lichti was born to Joseph B. and Catherine Lichti in Wellesley Township in 1868. In 1891 Rudy married Leah Jantzi, daughter of Joseph Jantzi and Catherine Schwartzentruber. Rudy and Leah were second cousins. Leah was a twin sister to Elizabeth who married Menno Lichti, brother to Rudy.

Rudy and Leah's two oldest children both died when only one day old. Finally, a healthy child, Nancy, was born in 1897. But when Nancy was only four months old, Leah died.

In 1895 Catherine (Jantzi) Lichti and her family divided their 200-acre farm (Lot #6, Con. III, West Section, Wellesley Township). Rudy purchased the west half and David the east half.

In 1899 Rudy married Rachel Schrag, daughter of minister Daniel Schrag and Magdalena Steinman, from SouthEasthope Township. Rudy and Rachel had five children.

In 1912 Rudy died at the age of 44. Once more there was a widow with a family of young children. The oldest son, Solomon, was only 12. Rachel hired help for about three years, and then Solomon, at the age of 15, had to take much of the responsibility. In 1927 Rachel left the farm to Moses and Aaron and went to live with her daughter Susan and son-in-law, Daniel Gerber. She passed away in 1929 at the age of sixty-five.

Rudy is buried in the Mapleview Mennonite cemetery. Probably the infants, Katie and Joseph, are buried there also. Rachel and her family went to Cedar Grove at the time of the division in the Wellesley Amish Mennonite congregation. Rachel is buried in the cemetery adjoining the Cedar Grove Amish Mennonite meetinghouse.

Nancy was the oldest in the family. Rachel leaned heavily on her for help when the family lost their father. Nancy's nieces and nephews also esteemed her highly and remembered her helpfulness. Nancy married John Bellar and lived in Musselburg.

Solomon went to Michigan to marry Emma Jantzi, daughter of Menno K and Veronica (Gerber) Jantzi. They lived at West Branch, Michigan for a while before they returned to Canada to farm near Milverton. They also lived near Kingwood for a short time. Later Solomon had a hatchery and harness repair shop at Musselburg. The hatchery burned, and Solomon barely escaped. Solomon then built a house where they lived until his death. At the time of this writing Emma is living in the Brunner Home.

Mary married Christian J. Gerber, son of Christian and Fanny (Jantzi) Gerber. Chris was born in Nobles County, Minnesota but came to Canada to find his bride and remained on the Gerber farm on the 5th line Wellesley Township (West Section) for three years. In 1933 Chris and Mary moved to a farm south of Millbank. When Danny married and took over the farm, Chris and Mary moved to Millbank where they reside today.

Susan married Daniel J. Gerber, brother to Mary's husband. After they married, Susan and Daniel lived in West Branch, Michigan for a year. When they returned to Ontario, they settled near Crosshill for 2 or 3 years and then moved to the 5th line in Wellesley Township. Susan was ill for the last 15 years of her life, being confined to a wheel chair for the last five.

Moses married Lavina Wagler, daughter of David and Katherine (Erb) Wagler. They lived on the home farm until about 1931. Moses had the feed store in Millbank for eight years and the lumber yards for three years. In 1942 they moved to a farm south of Millbank. When Delmar married and took over the farm, Moses and Lavina moved to Millbank. Since then they have been very active in collecting and processing materials for relief.

Aaron married Emma Wagler, sister to Moses' wife. Aaron and Emma remained on the Lichti home farm until 1953 when he started trucking gravel. They moved to Wellesley in 1958 or 59 and operated the trucking business until Aaron's death in 1966. Emma is still living in Wellesley.
