CHAPTER V

FAMILY OF DAVID YANCEY JR.

David Yancey Jr. was the third born child of David Yancey Sr. and Rachel Davis Medearis Yancey. He was born in Liberty Valley, Marshall County, Tennessee on July 26, 1835. He grew up on his father's farm there. He was almost twenty one years of age when he married a neighbor girl, Margaret Emmaline (Emma) Woodward, on June 5, 1856. Emmaline was the daughter of George Woodward and Margaret Porter Woodward. She was born in Tennessee June 15, 1839. Sketches of the Woodward and Porter families will be found at appendix 14 and appendix 19.

In the early eighteen sixties David and Emmaline, along with his parents and other members of the family, sold their holdings in Tennessee, and moved to Titus County, Texas.

During the Civil War, David Yancey Jr. served for a time in the Confederate Army.

After his return from service he began to make plans to move his family to better land. After making one or more trips in search of a suitable place to move, he decided upon land in Hunt County, Texas, near the town of Campbell. At appendix 20 will be found a letter that Emmaline wrote to her mother in Tennessee while this move was being contemplated.

The move to Campbell was made in the 1870's and the remainder of this couples' lives were spent in a comfortable two story frame farm house there. Their family increased during the years, until their youngest and twelfth child was born in 1884. Their oldest daughter, Lucy Elizabeth, was married and had three children of her own, by the time her youngest brother, John Tolbert Yancey was born.

David and Emma (as she was called), celebrated their golden Wedding Anniversary on June 5, 1906 by repeating their wedding vows in a second ceremony, a copy of this ceremony will be found at appendix 21.

Their married life had lasted a few days over 61 years, when the father passed away. David Yancey Jr. was almost 82 when he died on June 22, 1917. His wife caused the following announcement of his death to be printed in a local newspaper:

YANCEY- Death visited my home on June 22, 1917, and claimed my precious husband. No home was happier than ours. He was the father of twelve children, of whom nine are left to mourn his death. His earnest prayer was that he might live to raise his children to be Christians, and his prayer was answered, for he lived to see his youngest daughter married and every one members of the church of Christ. He was the pride of our home and was always ready to help those who were in need. He always had a kind word for everyone. He has gone to that place where sad partings are no more. Brother J. H. Lawson conducted the funeral services.

MRS. EMMA YANCEY.

Emma lived, a widow, for nearly five more years, passing away on June 9, 1920, a few days short of her 81st birthday.

David and Emma were faithful members of the church of Christ throughout their adult lives. They are interred in Brigham Cemetery near Campbell, Texas, near the center of the cemetery. Under the surrounding trees also rest a number of their children, grandchildren, and other relatives.
