CHAPTER X

FAMILY OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN YANCEY

Benjamin Franklin Yancey was the eighth born of the ten children of David Sr. and Rachel Davis (Medearis) Yancey. He was born December 2, 1848 in Marshall County, Tennessee.

He came to Titus County, Texas with his parents in the early eighteen sixties. He married Jennie Brown, daughter of John and Caroline (Pankey) Brown. They lived in Titus County until about 1890, when they moved to Campbell, Texas where his older brother David lived. They moved from Campbell to Angleton, Texas prior to 1900.

On September 8 and 9, 1900 occurred one of the worst disasters in Texas history. Known as the Galveston Storm, the hurricane, and flood that followed, took between 5,000 and 7,000 lives and destroyed property many miles inland into Texas. The family of Benjamin Franklin Yancey lost their home in Angleton in this storm. After this disaster, they decided to try their fortune on the west coast, and moved to the State of Washington. They engaged in the fruit growing business there until 1910, when Benjamin Yancey died on May 22. He was interred there, but the location of his grave is not known to descendants. After his death, his widow and surviving children returned to Texas and settled in the Bay City area, Jennie Brown Yancey, who was born January 2, 1859, died November 17, 1931 and is interred at Bay City, Texas.

FAMILY OF THOMAS HINES YANCEY

Thomas Hines Yancey was the sixth child born to Thomas and Sarah Hicks Yancey. He was born April 2, 1818 near Winterville, Georgia. As a young man he moved to Tennessee, and it was probably there that he married his first wife. Her first name was Permelliah, but her last name has not been discovered to our knowledge. She was born about 1827 in Tennessee. Thomas Hines Yancey married the second time in Texas to a widow, Maryan Ann (Bullard) Gowin. He died in March 1881 and is interred in Yancey (Center Grove) Cemetery, Titus County, Texas near his brother David's grave. His widow died July 18, 1886 and is interred in Union Chapel Cemetery, Van, Texas. (see Chap. I).

Research on this family was done by T. B. Yancey of Kilgore, Texas. (FGB).

Descendants of Thomas Hines Yancey will be listed in two parts. Known descendants of the first wife will be listed and then descendants of the second wife.
