

WHILE ON HIS MISSION
FROM HIS SISTER
SYLVIA TO WILLIAM
NOV. 24, 1929

Doakella Ada.

Nov. 24, 1929.

Dear William:—

I am late about sending you money, but as long as it comes I guess you won't mind. It will soon be there beginning but I suppose your Thanksgiving dinner will be over and forgotten by the time you ~~receive this letter~~, that is if you get one). I don't suppose they celebrate where you are at like they do here.

We were at Blackfoot last Sunday. Mother is still having quite a lot of trouble with her legs. (I guess she doesn't diet as much as she should.) But when it is pretty hard to do when one has been used to eating very thing and any thing.

Mother said Marie surely had a swell new home, I guess she has told you about it.

Alice is planning on coming ~~home I think for Christmas~~.

We are having some quite cold weather but no snow as yet. The last time I talked to Doakella she talked like you were writing very much. Maybe you are sending another present. I wish to hear from you again. Sylvia hasn't had much. Sylvia.
