(The Nanney Line).

Nanney, which is also spelled Nanna and Nannau, is said to have been derived from Nannaw, in Wales, the original residence of the family.

(Lower: "Patronymica Britannica.")

(I) Rees Nanney (spelled Nanna and Nannau in some records), was probably born in Wales, and died in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, in 1747. The earliest record found of him is what appears to be his second declaration of intentions of marriage, 1-29-1714. It is significant that among the witnesses whose names are recorded on his marriage certificate, not one bears his family name. This is a very good indication that he was the immigrant to America.

On 6-7-1732, "Rice Nanney and wife produced a certificate from Abington."

(Gwynedd Monthly Meeting Minutes.) "Reese Nanney" was taxed in 1734 in Gwynedd Township, where he owned 224 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres of land. In the settlement of his estate, his residence is given as North Wales; this was a name sometimes applied to Gwynedd Township, the two names being synonyms for the same part of Wales. The borough of North Wales, Montgomery County, is carved out of this old township.

Administration on the estate of "Reese Nanna," late of North Wales, yeoman, deceased, was granted to Abraham Nanna and Jacob Nanna, sons of the said "Reese Nanna," October 3, 1747. On April 14, 1748, a petition was made by Ann, Elizabeth and Rees Nana, infants under twenty-one years, that their father, "Rees Nana," of Philadelphia County, left land, etc., valued at £800, dying intestate about twelve months ago, when administration was granted to the petitioners' brother (not named). They asked that John Potts and Peter Clever, of Dublin Township, yeomen, be appointed guardians. Petition granted.

Rees Nanney married (first) at Plymouth Meeting, 2-14-1714, Elizabeth Coulston. (Coulston II.) He married (second), at Horsham Meeting, Margaret Cadwalader "of Worminghurst, County Bucks, widow," who died and was buried at Germantown, 10-11-1748. She was presumably from Warminster, Bucks County, where there was a well-known family of that name. Perhaps the clerk had in mind Warminghurst, County Sussex, where William Penn lived. Thomas Allen Glenn says that Margaret Cadwalader was "widow of Reece Peters and ——— Cadwalader, daughter of Thomas Owens, formerly of Plymouth township, deceased." The will of "Margaret Nanne, widow of Rees Nanne, deceased (now of Germantown, Co. Phila.)" was dated 1-26-1748 and proved December 20, 1748. It reads in part:

£40 to be equally divided between my two nephews David and Thomas Owens.

To my niece Margaret Thomas, wife of Richard Thomas, £10.

To my niece Thamer Dunn, wife of James Dunn, £20.

£20 to be equally divided between Henry Jones late of perkasey decess'd his four children at 21 respectively.

To my friend Edward William, of Blockley Township, £50.

Residue to be equally divided between Thomas Peters and Rees Peters (both Sons of old Thomas Peters of Philadelphia deceased).

Execrs: said Thomas Peters and Rees Peters.

Wits: Sarah Ashmead, John Ashmead, Ed. William.

Children of Rees and Elizabeth (Coulston) Nanney (exact order not known): 1. Grace, born 5-25-1716; married, 7-29-1741 (second intentions, Gwynedd Monthly Meeting), Michael Trump. 2. Abraham, died testate in Upper Merion in 1809. 3. Isaac, was living in 1747-48, when his brother, Jacob, made his will. 4. Jacob, died unmarried in 1752; in his will he leaves all his apparel to his brother, Isaac; all his right in the undivided estate of his father, with his other effects "to be divided amongst my brothers and sisters as follows: To my brother William, one moiety, or $\frac{1}{2}$ part; to my sister Grace Trump one one-fourth part; remaining one-fourth to be divided equally between my brothers and sisters Abraham, Isaac, Rees, Mary, Sarah, Ann & Elizabeth. Excr: my brother William Nanna, with full power to execute all deeds, etc., which on my part ought to be done in my father's undivided estate." 5. Sarah, of whom further. 6. William, died in Whitpain, Montgomery County, about 1804, leaving a will. 7. Mary, married at Gwynedd Meetinghouse, 4-10-1746, Daniel Roberts, of Upper Dublin, Pennsylvania, who died in 1777. 8. Ann, was under twenty-one years of age in 1748. 9. Elizabeth, born about 1732; she married Jacob Dilworth. 10. Rees, was under twenty-one years of age in 1748; was a cooper and lived in Upper Dublin; married, at Plymouth Meeting, 4-7-1761, Ann Trotter, widow of Joseph Trotter, of Plymouth, deceased, and daughter of Richard Bevan, of Upper Merion.

Dear Colonel Nanney,

Your letter concerning your ancestor Robert Nanney has been passed on to me as the older papers of the Nanney family of Nannau near Dolgellau are kept in this Library. I find, however, that Robert Nanney was a member of the Nanney family of Cefndeuddur in the parish of Trausfynydd, Merionethshire and not of the Nanney family of Nannau. The Nanneys of Cefndeuddur were distant relatives of the Nanneys of Nannau. I am enclosing pedigrees of both families.

There are no papers in the Nannau collection held here which relate to the Nanneys of Cefndeuddur. I have also failed to trace Robert Nanney in any Calendars of State Papers foreign, domestic or colonial, kept at this Library.

Yours sincerely,
Tomos Roberts.

THE NANNEY-YANCEY THEORY

The notes that are reproduced following this paragraph were compiled by Mrs. Temple Hill Carraway of Asheville, North Carolina. She was a great-granddaughter of Lewis Yancey and his wife, Mary Graves. Lewis was son of James Yancey and Ann Thornton of Granville County, North Carolina (see page 2 and appendix 5). Mrs. Carraway is reported to be deceased. Her notes were probably prepared about 1930. She furnished Mrs. Bertha Yancey Jenson of Blackfoot, Idaho a copy. Mrs. Jenson passed them on to Col. Lloyd R. Garrison of Denton, Texas. The copy reproduced here was made by, and received from Col. Garrison it contains parenthetical notes by him. DMW

NANNEY or YANCEY HISTORY

Records furnished by O. E. Ruck; Genealogist, gentleman and distinguished officer in His Majesty's Service, now living in Wales. Mr. William Evans, Genealogist of Cumberland County, Va. Mr. William Shepard of Va. From Raleigh Travers Green's Book, taken from Dr. Slaughter's Notes on Culpeper County, Va. From Welsh Families and Antiquities. And from old letters owned by descendants of William Shepard.

Arms furnished by William Shepard.

Arms verified by Portcullis Pursuivant of Arms, London, Eng.; also by Burke's Heraldry.

NANNEY OF NANNAU

From Cadwgan, second son of the Tribe, descendant of Nanney of York. Founder was Bladdyn ap Cynfyn, from the third royal tribe was descended.

Howard Salyf or Sale, possessor of NANNAU in the time of Owain Clyndwr (Owen Glendower ? - LRG), was ninth from Bladdyn ap Cynfyn. His grandfather, Ynyr Tychan, Jr., son of Ynyr ap Maurig in the Third Regiment of Edward 1st, presented a petition to the Prince of Wales, stating that the King had made William Rhaglor of the Court of Tlybont for his services in taking, odic ap Llywain, who in the last War had made himself Prince of Wales. This petition was not granted, as Ynyr could show no charter to the office.

When Dwyn or Dwn visited Nannau in 1588 he was head of the family and signed the pedigree.

His grandson, head of the family, was Hugh Nanney, Esq., Sheriff of County in 1638. (A) grandson of Col. Hugh Nanney, died in 1667. (He was a) M.P., Colonel of Militia of his County and Vice Admiral of North Wales in the last year of William III. Edmon in Lanfuchreth Ch. was the last of the line of Nanney.

APPENDIX

Catherine, daughter of William Vaughan, Esq., of Corsegedol. His (William Vaughan's - LRG) third daughter, Catherine, married Robert Vaughan, Esq., celebrated antiquary of Hengwrt. Catherine's oldest son, Hugh Vaughan, succeeded to the Nanney estates but died unmarried. His next brother, Robert of Nanney and Hengwrt in 1792 (was made a) Baron, and his son was Sir Robert Vaughan, Bart., M.P., of Nannau, who succeeded him. He was 44 years a Member of Parliament; also father of Griggith ap Howell Vaughan, Esq., of Phug and Hengwrt, and (of) Col. Edward William Vaughan, who inherited the Phug estates and assumed by license the additional surname of Sailesbury and died in 1807.

Sir Robert William Vaughan, third Baronet of Nannau, dap in 1859 and the title became extinct and the estates were divided. (DSP means died without children - LRG) Nannau was left to the Hon. Thomas Price Loyd for life and then to John Vaughan, Esq. Hengwrt was given to his wife's three sisters for life; and the great collection of Hengwrt manuscripts to a kinsman, W.W. Lwyn (Sic-LRG) Esq., of Peniarth. The Phug estates to H.C.H. Wynn, second son of Lord Newborough.

(Signed) O.E. Ruck

Maisi-pandi in the Parish of Tallylyn, now reduced to a farm, was for many ages the seat of a family of note. Llwyn Hughes, Esq., Sheriff of (the) County of Merioneth, 1582.

Llwyn Dwn paid ten shillings to deputy for making out the pedigree. They traced their line from Eimon Dais, said to have been a descendant of Caradoc Fraichfras and bore arms ascribed to that knight.

Heiress of the Hughes family married Lewis Nanney, Esq., a grandson of Hugh Nanney, Esq., of Nannau. Sheriff of Merioneth County, 1634. She married the second time to John Lloud of Ceiswyn, Sheriff of Merioneth Co., 1652.

The Maisy-pandi estates passed into that of Wynn of Maesyneuadd Talsarnaw through marriage of William Wynn, Esq., to Lowry, eldest sister of John Nanney in 1863 (1668?) The last of this name line died in 1868 (1668?)

Nanneys of Nannau bore Arms: Or, a Lion Rampant az. for Nanney on the first and fourth quarters: Ermine on a Saltire gu. a Crescent or, for Wynn. Mrs. Nanney of Bronylfa, St. Asaph, Flintshire. Lucy Victoria, widow of John Nanney, Esq., J.P., son of the late Rev. John Nanney, M.A., of Maceyneuadd, County of Merioneth, who adopted the surname Nanney in the room of his own name Wynn. (These arms were also borne -LRG) By Ann Fleming, daughter of John Fisher, Esq. of Chetwynd Lodge, Shropshire; (and by-LRG) third daughter of the late Edmund Williams, Esq., M.A., J.P. of Pantre Mawr in County of Denbigh. She married Mr. Nanney, who died Dec. 27, 1868.

Sir William Berkeley was a connection of the Nanneys through his ancestor Bleddyn Cynfyn of the third Royal Tribe of Wales.

One of the Nanneys descended from Carado Fraichfras, a knight of the mystical Round Table.

Vron Goch, just north of Bala Marioneth, was the home of the Nanney brothers who emigrated to America in or about 1640.

I send a little map in which Vron Goch is marked in the Valley of the River Dee, which rises in Bala Lake.

(Signed) O.E. Ruck

At Vron Goch were many Nanney Clans.

O.E. Ruck

William Shepard: "My theory is that the Nanney Brothers of Vron Goch, four or five, emigrated to America about 1640 and they did not leave their new address, gradually becoming known, perhaps, first by the name of Yanney or Nancey and finally by the name of Yancey. For people were not particular as to the spelling of names in those days."

From "Welsh Families and Antiquities": "The attributes of pure Welsh blood are, dark, vivacious, quick witted, and benevolent; full of family pride and affection. In the Celtic life three things you see, three elements you find, Religion, Love, Politics; and all the rest is Wind."

NANNEY ARMS

On a gold shield, a Lion in blue, facing to the left, rampant. No motto or Crest, showing great age, being used by a Welsh chief in battle for identification of himself and his followers. Mottoes were taken arbitrarily by family and the lack of one means nothing. However, in several branches of the Yancey family the motto which means "Tough Not the Cat Without the Glove" has been handed down by tradition.

A member of the Shepard family, Miss Annie Shepard, living in Buckingham County, Va., inherited from her mother, whose maiden name was Yancey, a copy of the Nanney Coat of Arms. Miss Shepard was 98 years old in 1928. (She may be dead now, but I had the privilege of seeing and copying this (Coat of) Arms.)

LETTERS WRITTEN BY MEMBERS OF THE YANCEY FAMILY - Virginia?

APPENDIX

No. I

My dear Brother Robert: Since I last saw you my wife has been very ill in the house of her cousin, Charles Yancey. Every attention was paid to her before I reached her side and she was delivered of a fine boy before my coming. The boy resembles that old Welsh stock. Charles Yancey says that he must play astrologer and prepare the horoscope of the lad, and from the way he drinks whatever is given him he believes he was born under the sign of Bacchus. While visiting Charles Yancey's home during the convalescence of my wife, we discussed old Welsh Stock. He tells me that Mr. Evans of Cumberland County, says that he is also Welsh and is descended from some outlandish prince of that country.

"Mr. Evans is broadly cultivated, says that he does not believe the Yancey name is correct, that it was Nanney and got amended in transportation across the Atlantic.

"Happily Yancey had heard something of this kind from his folks and my wife has an old Arms of the family that he says belongs to the Nanney family. He says that he has seen it in his father's books. Mr. Evans was a distinguished soldier in the War, a gentleman and a scholar. He speaks Welsh and pronounces Welsh names very peculiarly....."

"(The letter describes a reunion of Revolutionary soldiers too long to copy.)

"(This letter was written by Samuel Shepard to his brother, Robert Shepard, Dec. 10, 1805. Published in Va. and Tenn. periodicals.)

"(Samuel Shepard's wife was a Yancey, and a cousin of Charles? Yancey.)

"Note that this is the same Arms owned by Miss Annie Shepard, my cousin.

"Samuel Shepard was my great grandfather."

(Signed) William Shepard

Letter No. II.

Charles Yancey, Major, called the Duke of Buckingham, writes to his cousin, Mrs. Samuel Shepard, in a letter without date, but from its contents, undoubtedly written about 1826.

"Travelers Rest, Nov. 4, 1826 ?

"My dear Cousin: I hear that your brother is sick. Have you heard from him? The Yanceys down that (way) have quite forsaken me... (He speaks of sales of slaves, etc., and ends:) "Come over soon with your whole family. I expect everyone at Christmas. We have replenished our cellars and larders; so tell Sam to come empty. When did Sam hear from his brother, L. Thomas Shepard, in Tennessee?

Affectionately,

Charles Yancey"
