NOTES ON THE YANCEY DESCENDANTS IN GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C., AND IN MECKLENBURG COUNTY, VA., WITH PARTICULAR REFERENCE TO THE FAMILIES OF CHARLES ROGER YANCEY AND JACK EDWARD YANCEY, BOTH OF ROUTE 1, BUFFALO JUNCTION, VA.

James Yancey "of Hanover County in the Colony of Virginia" on 4 June 1752 bought for £ 70 from Robt. Jones 1280 acres on both sides of Jonathan Creek in Granville County. (Granville Co. Deed Book B., p. 70)

James Yancey "of Granville County," N. C. on 6 March 1753 bought for £ 1,000 "Virginia money" from Robt. Jones 1280 acres on the North Fork of Jonathan Creek in Granville Co. "on the Country Line that divides the Government of Virginia from North Carolina and it is that tract land whereon the said James Yancey now lives on . . ." (Granville Co. Deed Book B., pp. 169-172)

The description of this tract of land is not the same as that of the land acquired from Robt. Jones of Surrey Co., Va. in 1763 and left to James Yancey's son Thomas. Note that James in 1760 had "taken up" the land he left to Thomas and in 1763 "bought" it from Robt. Jones. The 1280 acre tract described above as being bought from Robt. Jones in 1753, ten years earlier, for £ 1,000 no doubt was added to that he had bought the year before (1752) for £ 70. James lived there at the time of purchase, but when he willed to his son Thomas in 1777 some of the land James then lived on, it had a different description. (See Granville Co. Deed Book G, p. 76) Probably James had moved to a better location than that selected when he came from Hanover County in 1752.

Richard Yancey "of Louisa County in the Colony of Virginia", brother of the James Yancey named above, on 20 May 1753 bought of Wm. Williams, of Granville Co., N.C. for £ 20, 143 acres lying on both sides of Jonathan Creek. (Granville Co., Deed Book B, p. 199) And in the same month Richard Yancey bought of Robt. Jones of Surrey Co., Va., for £ 50 land on the North Side of Jonathan Creek. The acreage was not stated, but the tract measured 240 poles x 420 poles, 180 poles x 220 poles, 60 poles to ___ creek and then down said creek to Jonathan Creek, etc., evidently a large tract. (Recorded 29 May 1753, Granville Co. Deed Book B, p. 197) But Richard Yancey had settled in Mecklenburg Co., Va., and was described as "of Mecklenburg Co., Va.," when on 12 May 1778 he gave his son, Charles Yancey, 240 acres on both sides of Beach Creek in Granville Co., N.C. (Granville Co. Deed Book L, pp. 301-302) And probably to straighten out a land line or cover into his son's land a natural part of it, Richard Yancey, Senior, and Mary, his wife, deeded to Charles Yancey for £ 100, 20 acres of land "on Beach Creek," etc., etc. (Granville County Deed Book M, p. 151)

Richard Yancey in his will designated his "beloved brother James Yancey" as one of the executors of the will. According to the records of Mr. and Mrs. W. Thornton Yancey of Oxford, N.C., Richard and James Yancey were sons, but not the only children, of Charles Yancey of Hanover County, Virginia, who was born about 1690. From other sources, some lacking reliable documentation, the American descent of Richard and James Yancey, appears to be as follows:

- I. Charles Yancey (I) who arrived in Virginia before 1642 or by 1674 and d. 1690, probably was one of the four or five brothers. He m. the granddaughter of Alexander Leighton of Hanover Co., Va. (1) (2), and appears to have been the father of
- II. Charles Yancey (II), 1678-1735 (2), who was on the Quit Rent Rolls for King William Co., Va. in 1704, m. Miss Bartlett and had five sons:
 - (1) Robert (w. 1746 named (wife?) Temperance, dau. Martha, sons Robert and Charles, and executors Richard Yancey and James Yancey (his brothers).
 - (2) Richard (w. 24 Aug. 1768, pvd. 11 Sep 1780 (4), m. Mary _____ (w. 1795)
 - (3) James, 1712-1779, m. 1735, Ann Thornton and in 1752 moved from Hanover Co., Va. to Granville Co., N.C. (4)
 - (4) Archelaus (w. 1764) (4)
 - (5) Charles (III), m. Miss Dumas (1)

- 1) Lynchburg and Its Neighbors, " Rose Faulkner Yancey
- 2) "Surry County," Notes from Mrs. Freeman ^{Lary} Yancey, Fort Worth, Texas.
- 3) Robert Yancey in his will, April, 1746, names Temperance Yancey, "my daughter," "daughter Martha," "son Charles," "son Robert," and "Sole Executors, Richard Yancey and James Yancey," Witness: Benj. Harris.
- 4) Deed, Chas. Yancey, Sr., to son Archelaus Yancey, 7 Aug 1735, Hanover Co., Va.; deed, Chas. Yancey to son James Yancey, 5 Nov. 1734, Records of Hanover Co., Va., cited in William and Mary Quarterly, (1) Vol. 21, p. 57.

Others writing on the Yancey Family indicate other possibilities, but do not document them; and obvious errors have crept into their conclusions. Further research and study will be required to clear up this discrepancy, with difficulties increased in the scarcity of records of families who lived in Hanover County.

It should be mentioned here that a third member of the Yancey Family got to North Carolina ahead of James and Richard. There is no indication that he was their brother; and his name does not appear very frequently in documents of the period or in any historical studies known to this writer. On 25 March 1749, three years before James Yancey came to Granville County, Jeconias Yancey, "of Edgecomb Co.", N.C., "took up" by grant from Earl Granville 440 acres of land in Granville County lying on both sides of Anderson's Swamp. Not until seven years later, on 2 March 1756, was the deed recorded. (Granville Co. Deed Book B, p. 501)

Two principal difficulties in tracing family lines during the period from 1600 to about 1830 should be emphasized. First names in documents and letters are seldom accompanied by a "second name" or the middle initial. Brothers named their children after their parents and after their own brothers and sisters; so cousins often had the same names, and often there were three or more cousins of the same name. Writers have failed conspicuously to give dates of birth and death in mentioning persons of the same name, leaving one to judge from an involved context which was a father, a son, or a cousin; when dates can be given, possibilities of relationship become clearer, as do the impossibilities. A third, minor, practice sometimes obscures relationships: the terms "senior" and "junior" placed after identical names in a locality do not always indicate father and son. Often they were used merely to differentiate between two persons of the same name but of different ages who happened to live in the same community. The usage applied sometimes even in cases in which one of the persons had and used a middle name!

Information obtained in December, 1957 from Jack E. and Sally Martha Clack Yancey, Route 1, Buffalo Junction, Va. (whose home is in Granville Co., N. C. and in sight of that of Charles Roger Yancey), from old deeds in the possession of Mrs. Jack E. Yancey, and from information taken from a letter from Mr. Jack Watkins of Clarksville, Va., dated 12 Feb 1957, to Mrs. Varina Yancey Wood, of Holly Springs, Miss., throws some light on a few of the descendants of Richard Yancey of Mecklenburg Co., Va., and indicates the need to clear up the confusion existing between the names of the grandchildren of Richard and James Yancey, whose wills were signed in 1768 and 1777.

Richard Yancey wrote his will on 24 August 1768, mentioning his wife Mary (her will, 13 April 1795), one daughter, and nine of his ten sons, and naming his brother James Yancey and his son Charles Yancey as executors. The daughter was Keziah Yancey Nuchols and the sons were William, Lewis, Absolom, Richard, Robert, Charles, Hezekiah, Joseph, and Zacariah. Hezekiah in his will mentions his brother Reuben, not mentioned by Richard nor by Mary Yancey in her will. No doubt Reuben was born after the signing of his father's will and died before his mother made hers. William Yancey at the time his father Richard made his will, lived on, and was designated to inherit, 200 acres of land in Granville County near Gooch Creek and the property of John Stovall.

According to Mr. Jack Watkins, in the letter cited above, Charles Yancey, son of Richard Yancey (w. 1768), had a son William "Buck" Yancey, who had a son Charles A. Yancey (b. 1854), who was the father of Charles Roger Yancey (b. 1881), whose four sons and four daughters were: Charles Edward, Howard, Harry, and Sizemore; and Helen, Frederica, Fleta, and Frances.

It must be recognized, however, that two Charles Yanceys have been omitted from the chain of descent in Mr. Watkins' account; for their wills name children who fit into the chain. The Charles Yancey, deceased, for whose heirs a petition to divide his estate was filed in 1833, had as his heirs:

Absolom Yancey
Charles Yancey (d. 1858)
 Anne Yancey
 #Keziah Yancey
 Jane Yancey, who m. Lewis Tapp, 1797 *
 Martha Yancey, who m. Nathaniel Robertson, 1818 *
 Mary Yancey, who m. Lewis Cosby, _____ *
 (*Hays' Notes from Granville Co. Records.)

The Charles Yancey who d. 1858 left a will naming his children as

Permelia Yancey (b. 14 July 1814) no further record
Absalom Yancey (w. 1905, d. 1915)
Charles A. Yancey (b. 1844)
 Roxy Ann Reamis, (who m. 1853, Alexander Reams)
 Mary Virginia White, (who m. 1850, Wm. T. White)

(See Granville Co., N. C. Will Book 20, p. 560 and the Hays' Notes.)

#Note: Mr. Charles Roger Yancey referred to a grave in the Yancey Family cemetery on his land as being that of his "Aunt Keziah." But the daughter of Charles Yancey who d. 1833 was his great-great aunt, apparently.

-LRG

The name William (Buck) Yancey--in that combination--this writer in 1959 had found only in Mr. Watkins' letter, written 12 Feb 1957 after a visit to Mr. Charles Roger Yancey. William (Buck) is referred to as the son of Charles Yancey, who was a son of Richard Yancey (w. 1768). (Yancey-Medearis Compilation, pp. 111-112) But in 1960 at a conference with Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Yancey, they said William (Buck) Yancey was also named Charles.

Charles Yancey, son of Richard, appears to have died in August, 1814, or earlier; for on 19 September 1814, Mary Yancey was the "Representative" of Charles' estate, valued at $500; sureties being Robert Williamson and Richard H. Walker. ("Fiduciary Book," 1766-1850, Entry No. 10, Mecklenburg Co., Va. Entry No. 1 of this book, dated 1784, pertains to administration of the estate of Richard Yancey (w. 1768), whose executor, his son Charles, in 1781 and Mary Yancey, Richard's widow and administratrix in 1784, both were bonded in the sum of 150,000 pounds. That Entry No. 1 should have a date of 1784 and Entry No. 2 a date of 1781 appears to be in error: the record of the will itself shows that on 12 Feb 1781 it was proved a second time, Charles was recognized as executor, and his sureties were placed under bond for 150,000 pounds; while "the letters of administration formerly granted Mary Yancey widow on the estate of the said Richard are repealed.")

This Mary Yancey, "Representative" of Charles' estate in 1814, must have been his wife, Charles' mother, Mary Yancey, had died about 1795; and it was his brother Robert's son, Richard, who in 1796 had married Mary Walton of Louisa County, Va. (Index of Marriage Register, Louisa Co., Va., 1766-1861, p. 79, Va. State Archives; Yancey-Medearis Compilation, p. 136)

 Permelia Esther (Mrs. J. E. Callahan), Susan B. (Mrs. T. S. Reams), Geneva Ann (Mrs. Alfred S. Clack), Sallie G. (Mrs. W. N. Chandler), John A.

See p. 7

* If the Charles Yancey who died in 1858 was "Charles R. Yancey, as seems likely, since he had a grandson named Charles Roger Yancey, it appears that he was three times married in Orange County, N.C. On 11 Feb 1827 he m. Mary Merritt; on 7 Oct 1830, Martha Merritt; and on 3 Oct 1851, Charlotte Creel. (Orange Co., N.C. Marriage Records, p. 454, Microfilm in N.C. State Archives) Thus the "Mrs. Charles Yancey" who died in June, 1830, as reported in the Raleigh Register, probably was Mary Merritt Yancey. He may have had another, much earlier marriage, about 1806; for his daughter, Permelia, named first in his will, may have been the person who worked the old sampler in the possession of Mrs. Jack E. Yancey which states that "Permelia Yancey was born 14 July 1807." An adult Permelia Yancey in 1833 was a witness when Anne Yancey, daughter of Charles William Yancey sold to Frederick M. Clack, grandfather of Mrs. Jack E. Yancey, the land she had received in the division of her father's estate. Search of family records should make these questioned relationships clear.

Data from old deeds in the possession of Mrs. Jack E. Yancey, 16 December 1957:

Jane Yancey Tapp and her husband, Lewis Tapp ("Jane Yancey, formerly of Person County,") sold on 8 Oct 1833 to Frederick M(aclin) Clark of Granville County, for $100, some land that had been Charles Yancey's, dec'd. This land adjoined land of Keziah Yancey, Absolom Yancey, and Dr. Edward Speed. (Recorded 12 Nov 1833, Granville Co. Deed Book 6, p. 182.) (Frederick Maclin Clack was the grandfather of Mrs. Sallie Martha Clack (Mrs. Jack E.) Yancey.)

Anne Yancey on 5 Oct 1833 sold to Frederick M. Clack for $115 land she had received in the division of the estate of Charles Yancey.
Witnesses: Charles Yancey, Permelia Yancey,* and Robert Clack, Junr. (Granville Co. Deed Book 6, p. 87).

NOTE: A sampler in the hands of Mrs. Jack E. Yancey shows that "Permelia Yancey was born July 14, 1807."

Keziah Yancey on 12 Oct 1833 sold for $125 her land from the estate of Charles Yancey. The buyer was Frederick M. Clack. (Granville Co. Deed Book 6, p. 87.)

For many years Mr. Francis B. Hays and his brother, a surveyor, assembled data concerning Granville County, N.C. and its people. The accumulation of manuscript data is impressive. It is arranged in a very orderly fashion, so that the compiler can locate data very quickly. Many data are from official records, Mr. Francis B. Hays once having been employed in the County Court House; while other entries have been taken from newspapers. In December, 1957, when he was interviewed by Lloyd R. Garrison, Mr. Francis B. Hays, then aged 83, was living in the Oxford Hotel, Oxford, N.C. Mr. Hays then was in poor health, with little eyesight remaining, but his mind was alert and his memory excellent, his courtesy unflinching. His brother, who had begun the collection of Granville County data, had been dead many years. The Hays' notebooks and their pages were numbered; and Mr. Hays without looking at them could designate the notebook to consult for specific references.

In his will Mr. Hays left his historical data to Granville County, provided proper facilities were made available within ten years after his death. Meanwhile, the records are in custody of his niece, who in 1960 lived in Oxford.

Below are notes relating to Yanceys which, unless otherwise indicated, are taken from the Hays' Notebooks.

1811 Philip Yancey, intestate. John Graves, admin. May have died 1808. See Joel Chandler's will for two sons, Joel Yancey and Alfred Yancey; Thornton Yancey was witness to Chandler's will, 1800.

1797 Henry Graves' will mentions (dau?) Mary Yancey. One of executors was Lewis Yancey. (See above: Lewis Yancey's will makes it clear that Henry Graves was father of Lewis' wife, Mary. -LRG)

- 1798 Tryon Yancey m. Sarah Stovall, dau. of John Stovall.
- 1797 James Yancey, intestate: Jachonias (?) Yancey, Admin (istrator).
Jachonias Yancey seems to have associated with Brassies (Bressies), 1798.
NOTE: James Yancey in 1765 married Mary Bracey. See above, p. 21-IRG)
- Mary Elizabeth Ann Yancey deeded to son Jachonias her interest in estate of her late husband, James Yancey, decd. Philip Yancey, a witness. (NOTE: For other witnesses to this deed, and for additional references to Jachonias, and other Yanceys of Granville County, including an Absolom and a Charles, see below, pp. 28)
- 1787 Lewis Yancey buys slaves of James Moore of Wake County. (James Moore, who had married Betty Yancey in 1765, bought one of the more expensive slaves at the sale of James Yancey's effects held on 30 November 1779, a privilege reserved by James Yancey in his will to his "children, no other person to be a bidder.." James Yancey, too, exercised this right of a child. It may be concluded, therefore, that Betty Yancey, wife of James Moore, was a daughter or granddaughter, and James Yancey, a son of James Yancey (w. 1777) although they were not mentioned in the will. They had already been provided for, no doubt, earlier, as Lewis had been; and Lewis was mentioned only as executor.) (See Granville Co. Deed Book I, p. 250; Granville Co. Deed Book L, p. 229; Granville County Wills, 1772-1787, JB 938, Volume I, pp. 262-263, N.C State Archives; Granville County Will Book I, p. 252. Annie Yancey m. "my son-in-law Jesse Saunders" 19 Oct 1765, as is clear in the will and record of marriages in the Hays Notes. Jane (Jennie) Yancey m. Edward Saunders 22 Dec 1774. See record of Yancey marriages in the Hays notes. Jesse and Edward Saunders were brothers, according to Mrs. T. H. Calloway (dec'd.) of Asheville, N.C., who, however, understood that it was Annie who married Edward and Jane who married Jesse. Marriage records in the Granville County Courthouse prove just the reverse to be true. James Yancey had yet another child, the mother of "granddaughter Nancy Baynes," to whom he left ten pounds. The Carroway Mss. notes the absence of data as to Nancy Baynes' mother.) LRG
- 1834 Tryon "Governor" Yancey m. a sister of John Blacknall of Oxford, and had Thomas B. Yancey, of Raleigh;
Mrs. Sarah Fasnach, and
Polly Yancey, also of Raleigh.
Tryon Yancey became insane and committed suicide.

(This was Elizabeth B. Goode Yancey, wife of Jackson M. Yancey, and youngest child (b. 1802) of John Goode of Cocke's Creek, Mecklenburg Co., Va., and his wife Rebecca. LRG)
- 1830 Robert J. Yancey, Jr., and Edwin Paschall established the Examiner, believed to have been Oxford's first newspaper.
(See also below.)
- 1832 Robert J. Yancey mentioned in connection with the Granville Branch of the Am. Bible Soc.
- 1834 Tryon Yancey, m. Sarah B. Blacknall (R.R.) Sep. (This marriage is not listed in the tabulation on pp. 21 and 22, taken from Mr. Hays' notes and may have taken place outside of Granville County or even outside of North Carolina. -LRG)

Mrs. Orest Asbury Lester, 216 East Peace Street, Raleigh, N.C. called on me (these are Mr. Hays' notes) at Katie's Sunday, November 29, 1953, for information on Yanceys et al. which I could not give her offhand, but I wrote her several pages on Dec 1, 1953. (Mr. Hays said Mrs. Lester was descended from Tryon Yancey. -LRG)

(End of Mr. Francis B. Hays' notes)

- 829 Robert J. Yancey, Jr., was co-editor (1830) with Edwin Pschall of the Oxford Examiner, for which they had in 1829 issued a prospectus.
Some time after 1836 Robert J. Yancey, Jr., moved to La Grange, Tenn., and edited The Western Whig.

Yancey Marriages found in Granville Co.,
N. C. Marriage Records, N.C. State Archives
(Microfilm) Copied, 1957-LRG

Most of these marriages are included in those transcribed from the Hays' Notes - see pp. 21 and 22 and serve to support the authenticity of those notes. Why marriages of dates so widely separated are mixed up on these two pages in the records is by no means clear.

Notes from Indexes on Some 19th and 20th Century Yancey Wills (Cont'd.)

*John Yancey's will, dated 22 April 1840, names his heirs as his "seven children," Thomas, Elizabeth, Nancy, Clarke, William, Lucy (who m. James Clarke) and Robert. In addition, he names "my son Charles." Certain land was to be divided between Charles Yancey and James Clarke. The "seven children" are so mentioned, the end of the list being Robert. "My son Charles" thus seems to make eight; but when it is known that Nancy Yancey married William Clarke (27 July 1827), # it is clear that the comma after Nancy should be omitted and that the list contains only six names. (#Mecklenburg Co., Va., Marriage Records, p. 87.)

(The marriage record referred to here is the old leather-bound hand-written index of reports of marriages sent in by clergymen, which is in the Mecklenburg County records. It was consulted on 25 Nov 1957 by L R G.)

This John Yancey appears to have been one of the eleven children of Robert Yancey (d. about 1815) who was a son of Richard Yancey of Mecklenburg Co., Va. (w. 1768) (Yancey-Medearis Compilation, p. 136)

 Eliza Yancey made her will in February 1851, naming her son, William Yancey; and daughters, Cornelia, wife of Joseph T. Reese; Roanna, and Ellenor. She mentions "my house and land purchased of I. W. Hardy, lying near R. M. College," and the "interest which I purchased of my son William in his Father's estate." (Mecklenburg Co., Va. Will Book 17, p. 386)

The "R.M. College" mentioned in the will of Eliza Yancey in 1851 is the original Randolph-Macon College west of Boydton, Virginia. The main college building, a large, sturdy brick building, was standing vacant in 1957, as was a fine old Georgian house across the highway. These buildings were going to ruin, and had been ^{vacant} since a plan of several years ago to use the old college buildings for a new academy, came to nothing.

 Yancey, Absolom Estate appraised 21 July 1817
 (d. before 1817) Final accounting, 1825
 Mecklenburg Co., Va. Will Book 8, p. 339; Will Book 10, p. 380

Absolom and Robert Yancey, who appear to have died about the same time (1815-1817), were sons of Richard (w. 1768) and Mary Yancey (w. pvd. 1795). See page 136, Yancey-Medearis Compilation.

Since this Absolom Yancey's will was probated in Mecklenburg County, it can be assumed that he had resided in that county. It is therefore most unlikely that, although the 1820 Census was taken from 1810-1820, this Absolom who died before 1817 could be the same as the Absolom Yancey listed in the Granville County Census for 1820, who was in the 26-45 age group, had no females in his family, and owned one male and one female slave. (N.C. Census of 1820, p. 34. -Microfilm in N.C. State Archives, Raleigh, N.C.)

Absolom Yancey, son of Richard Yancey (w. 1768), probably was the man who married Henrietta Nucholls of Louisa County, Va., 27 Jan 1789. His sister Keziah Yancey had married a Nuchols. (Index to Marriage Register, 1766-1861, Louisa Co., Va., p. 43, Microfilm in Va. State Archives. The only authority for the marriage of Keziah Yancey Nuchols known to this writer is the will of her father, Richard Yancey, 1768.)

 The dates identify Isabella W. Yancey as the "Belle Halliburton" who m. James Thornton Yancey, 1835-1918. See p. 107, Yancey-Medearis Compilation. The Robert and Oscar Yancey mentioned above appear to be the sons of J. T. and Isabella W. Yancey.

Notes on the Descendants of Zachariah Yancey, son of Richard Yancey and Mary his wife, of Mecklenburg County, Virginia, from data supplied by Martha B. Yancey (Mrs. Berryman) Green.

Zachariah Yancey (b. ca. 1756; d. ca. 1852) m. Elizabeth Mayes Children, named in order of birth in unfiled will:

1. Folly (Yancey) b. ca. 1785; d. after 1850.
2. Absolum (Yancey), who "taught school and later went to Georgia."
3. John B. Yancey, b. ca. 1797. See below.
4. Nancy (Yancey), who m. Lewis Griffin and had son Charles, b. ca. 1829.
5. Elizabeth (Yancey) m. "Mr. Laneane" and had son John and dau. Ann.
6. Dolly (Dorothy?) (Yancey) m. "Wm. Laneane."
7. Avarilla (Yancey) m. _____ Daniel.
8. Jane (Yancey) m. Peyton R. Talley and had dau. Mary Ann Talley.
9. William Lewis Yancey, b. 23 Aug 1804; d. 21 Oct 1897. He m. Nancy Jones, b. 14 Oct 1803; died June, 1887. See below.
10. Stith G. Yancey, b. ca. 1810; m. Malvina Doureath Lydick, b. ca. 1815; and had a son and three daus., Andrew, b. ca. 1837; Augusta, b. ca. 1842; Isabella, b. ca. 1845 (m. _____ Conklin); Mary, b. ca. 1847.
11. Richard H. Yancey, b. ca. 1816; m. Mary _____, b. ca. 1828, and had (by a first wife, _____?) Mullins (Yancey), b. ca. 1840; Charles (Yancey), b. ca. 1846; Elizabeth Lucy (Yancey), b. ca. 1848; Frances (Yancey), b. ca. 1850.

The children of John B. Yancey, the third child of Zachariah Yancey and his wife Elizabeth Mayes:

(John B. Yancey, b. ca. 1797; m. Mary _____, b. ca. 1805)
Frances Yancey, b. ca. 1820
George Yancey, b. ca. 1824

NOTE: Since Yancey men seldom married early, it appears unlikely that Frances Yancey, who was only fifteen years younger than her father's wife (in the 1850 Census record), was the daughter of Mary Yancey. John B. Yancey was 23 years older than his daughter, Frances, and 8 years older than his wife Mary. The four year interval between Frances and George suggests that Frances' mother died while Frances was very small and that John B. Yancey married again as soon as he could; and that George was the son of the second wife, Mary. Perhaps records of marriage bonds will make this clear. -LRG 5 March 1960.

The descendants of William Lewis Yancey, the ninth child of Zachariah Yancey and his wife Elizabeth Mayes:
