Notes

Librarian 1: Here is what I have found thus far. Oscar Samuel Large is listed in the Springfield City Directory between the years 1896 and 1912. He is listed for every year as being with the Warren & Company 622 E. Washington (in various capacities from "bookkeeper" in 1896 to Salesman in 1903 to Asst. Manager in 1910. By 1912 it just lists him as being with Warren & Company). I have no listing of Mr. Large after 1912, and I have no obituary for him in our obituary index. For one year, in 1907, he is listed as being with Frank Sanford & Co. (415 E. Adams) as a clerk. I am continuing to look for the Lincoln Park connection that you mentioned. I will get back with you on that.

Librarian 1: By 1920, per the Federal Census of that year, Oscar S. Large is listed as a Farmer in Griggsville, Illinois. That is the last record we have of him. He is 45 years old at the time according to the census data. I will continue to look for a connection to the land in Lincoln Park if you would like, hLarge, Oscar S <javascript:go2862340()> Griggsville, Pike, Illinois 1874 Illinois White however as of now all I have is the city directory information I listed above and the 1920 census data.

That is part of his problem, other than that the whole family was weird. Grace got a farm and 24000.00+ from Oscars probate. She kept it all to her self, went to Co to become an Opera singer, left her husband to take care of a poor farm, Her kids had no idea she had money, her daughter took care of her in later years, when she died Carolyn and Charles had a splitting of the way. I can't find her anywhere and I am told by family members she is almost a recuse. Ol Oscar left 56,000 plus a farm to Mom and Grace in 1938.

Good Afternoon;

I finally found my photos of the tombstones at Whigville (Freedom), Noble Co., OH that I took on Aug. 30, 1999 when I visited the cemetery. I have six genealogies that I am working on and sometimes I forget where I have put my photos of the different cemeteries! Old age? Probably, or just too busy!

Anyway I have photos of the following persons tombstones:

HENRY CRAIG (father), ANNE CRAIG (Wife), ANELIZA (daughter- age 2 yrs.), and ELIZA CRAIG (Wife)

I don't have a photo of a ANN CRAIG (Daughter) tombstone.

I do have a photo of ANN CRAIG (Wife of Joshua Craig) tombstone. This must be the Mother of Henry Craig. I can't read any dates on it but the names are plain.

However, I don't have any information on ANN CRAIG, the daughter. Who did she marry? Where is she buried? What is the information on her, if you have any. Does the 1860 Census give you that information?

The ELIZA LARGE, age 75, domestic, Ireland, is my gggrandmother, the immigrant wife of GEORGE LARGE who died in Canada. Two of her sons are Henry Large, buried in Whigville and Samuel Large, my ggrandfather who migrated west to Illinois and is buried in Christian Co., IL.

I wish someone would feel responsible to go and do some work to update this cemetery. Many of the stones have fallen over and many need to be cleaned of dirt and algae so they can be read. If I inherited some money I surely would pay to have that done. I'm sure others are searching that cemetery for information too and not able to find it due to these conditions.

I need to go to the local library and get a copy of the cemetery burials for clarification. That would certainly be a big help. Maybe next summer when I am in Ohio I will do that. Another time of the day, with sun shining would make it possible to get better pictures, too.

I plan to visit my cousin in Illinois next summer, too, so will get more family date while there. I might go to Pana to see if I could find out anything there at the library on the Earl Large or Morrison families. It's always interesting what is available in libraries that go back to those days. Christian Co., IL., has an excellent genealogical site where they have some of the old buildings from the 1850-90's set up. The old school house where my grandmother went to school in Locust Twp., is there to see along with other buildings. Plus lots of old photograph albums from families with information and about them. It's really nice and a person could spend a week just going through their library on the grounds.

Just a little update. If I had your mailing address I could send you copies of the photos that I have of the Whigville Cemetery and some of the stones. It's your decision if you want photos or not.

Best of the New Year to you, and keep in touch.

Regards,

Darla

Sorry I haven't gotten back to you sooner. Just haven't been at the computer much. Last nite I was going over your last e-mail and discovered why there was a discrepancy on the tombstones you talked about. I searched the 1860 census of Noble County and found: Henry Craig, 52, m., manufacturer, Ireland - Ann M., 18, f., domestic, Ohio - Ann Craig, 80, domestic, Ireland - Eliza Large, 75, f, domestic, Ireland.

It appears that Henry Craig's wife, Ann died in 1842, and his daughter Ann M., his mother Ann, and his mother in law, Eliza are residing with him. This also solves the mystery of the second child's name. They had Aneliza and Ann M.

Now to answer your question of where I am located. I live in Prophetstown, IL. , about 3 hrs. from Chicago area. According to the Social Security system, Joseph A. Morrison received his card while living in Pana, IL.

I have a cousin, Joseph and Alice's grandson, that remembers going to visit Earl Large in Batavia, IL.

I think I confused you a little with my theory on the names. Willie and Lottie had Oscar in 1874, this is the same year that Joseph Morrison was born, but according to the family story, his mother raised him for several years before he went to live with his aunt. I feel sure that Lottie is that aunt. Willie and Lottie also had son Earl and I think Joseph and he were very close so Joseph named his first son Earl.

I am still searching census records to find Charlotte's family. If I can find her, I will find Joseph's mother. Will never know who his father is, but at least part of the mystery could be solved, since his mother would never tell who the father was.

Well, need to get going. Please keep in touch even if I don't get back to you right away. I always pour over the info sent to find clues. Thanks for the info, it did clear up a few things for me.
